50 YEARS OF GOLDEN MEMORIES

The United Way

The Catholic Youth Organization was accepted as a participating agency by the Community Chest (now The United Way of Central Indiana) in 1952. Throughout these past 37 years, the CYO has been fortunate to enjoy the support and friendship of The United Way as it strived to meet the ever increasing needs of youth. As the CYO celebrates its 50th Anniversary, it wishes to extend a very special thank you to The United Way of Central Indiana for the large role it has played in the success of the CYO. We look forward to continuing this special relationship for many years to come.

Dedication

This 50th Anniversary Book is Proudly Dedicated To

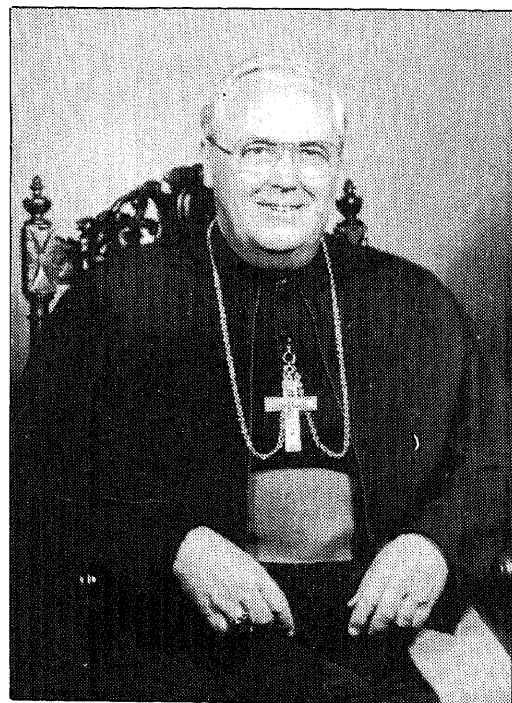

- The Most Reverend Archbishop Edward T. O'Meara, S.T.D., the current Archbishop of Indianapolis and his predecessors, Archbishop George J. Biskup, Archbishop Paul C. Schulte and Bishop Joseph E. Ritter, who consistently demonstrated their interest and support of the CYO.
- The priests of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis and school administrators who have provided the inspiration and leadership for our youth.
- The countless numbers of dedicated staff members who have made the CYO program strong and enduring.
- The thousands of adult volunteers and board members, many of whom participated in CYO programs in their youth, whose unselfish efforts for 50 years have enabled CYO to offer varied and expanding youth programs.
- The more than 30,000 participants in today's CYO program and those youth who participated before them and spent their formative years participating in CYO.
- The countless number of parents who have considered CYO a vital and necessary part of their children's lives since 1939.
- The many patrons of the CYO whose contributions have allowed the organization to keep pace with its responsibilities toward youth.

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

August, 1989

Dear Friends of CYO:

Looking back on past events is a nostalgic reverie in which we all indulge from time to time. Keeping items that recall such events is one way of preserving our past and looking ahead with zest to the future. These are the stuff of memories that we cherish, and this memorial booklet is the kind of recalling of the past that keeps memories intact.

For fifty years the Archdiocese has been blessed with the Catholic Youth Organization under extremely capable hands. Not only have the directors and their staff been devoted to the multi-dimensional reality of the ministry to youth, but the enormous number of adult volunteers who have assisted them have made possible the realization of their goals.

The executive directors through the years right up to the present have almost single-handedly carried on programs of excellence that have endured. The number of young persons touched not only by the programs but also by the directors and staff are legion. Their loyalty to CYO is a tribute to the current and past leaders who have dreamed dreams and brought them to reality in the Archdiocese.

To foster the total personal and spiritual growth of each young person, and to draw young people to responsible participation in the life, mission and work of the faith community has been the two-pronged goal which has guided and still guides our CYO in its ministry to the youth of the Archdiocese.

My predecessors would undoubtedly join me in saluting CYO as it passes this golden milestone of fifty years in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. My sincere hope is that this strong outreach and ministry to youth will still be with us 'ad multos annos.'

Sincerely yours in Our Lord,

+ Edward T. O'Meara

Public Relations Advisory Committee St. John Bosco Guild and Priests' Advisory Committee

In times of special need, the CYO has the privilege of seeking the advice of select groups such as the Public Relations Advisory Committee, St. John Bosco Guild and the Priests' Advisory Committee.

The Public Relations Advisory Committee is built around some of the brightest and imaginative men and women in the Public Relations and Advertising fields in the City of Indianapolis. Together, they help CYO tell its story to the Indianapolis Community.

The St. John Bosco Guild is comprised of a group of hard-working Indianapolis ladies who support CYO financially, morally and energetically. The St. John Bosco Guild is genuinely interested in the lives of the young people in our Church and Community.

The Priests' Advisory Committee assures that the spiritual dimension of CYO is present throughout all CYO programs and activities. During the course of any year, the Priests' Advisory Committee is contacted for advice regarding spirituality within the CYO program.

Introduction

As we reflect on the many steps of development that have taken place in the Catholic Youth Organization since its inception in 1939, it is appropriate to preface the history with an expression of gratitude for the selfless voluntary involvement of the thousands of devoted adult volunteers and priests of the Archdiocese. Beginning with the formation of the CYO, adult volunteers and clergy alike have shown they truly care and share generously of themselves and their resources. Throughout five decades, the unique contribution of these adults has remained a vital instrument in Christian living for youth in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.

We take this opportunity to thank all who have joined in this effort and pray for their continued work on behalf of our young people. By far, the most valuable assistance is given to youth through the CYO by simply providing them opportunities to be associated with Christian adult leaders who continue to foster spiritual, mental and physical development in our youth.

Remembering The Beginning — A CYO Was Formed

By Edward J. Fillenwarth, Sr.
President of the first CYO Board of Directors

The Catholic Youth Organization was officially established on February 1, 1939 by Bishop Joseph E. Ritter. From its humble beginnings, the history of the CYO is a story of dedication and love. It is a story which has no ending as it continues today in the same spirit and enthusiasm that was established 50 years ago.

The Catholic Youth Organization has grown from almost nothing in 1939 to a very successful and worthwhile organization in 1989 and today remains an organization of, for and on behalf of youth only. It goes without saying that the CYO was not organized for volunteers but without those thousands of volunteers including the young parish priests, financial donors and the Community Chest (now the United Way of Central Indiana) in 1952 the CYO would not be celebrating its Golden Jubilee in 1989.

A few people are still around who can remember meetings that were held in late 1938 and early 1939 at the Knights of Columbus Clubhouse on North Delaware Street in Indianapolis to discuss the idea of forming a youth organization of some kind for boys.

Records show the initial idea came from Father August R. Fussenegger and Father Charles Schoettelkotte, Chaplains of the Knights of Columbus, Bishop Joseph E. Ritter and a few additional K of C members. However, upon persuasive arguments from Father Albert H. Busald at a meeting of the K of C Council on December 12, 1938, that any youth organization should be for both boys and girls, the CYO was formed and almost immediately Father Schottelkotte was named the first Indianapolis City Director of the CYO by Bishop Joseph E. Ritter.

It is sincerely believed that K of C member Joseph M. Culligan is one of the original committee of three appointed on or about October 31, 1938, by John J. Blackwell, grand knight of K of C Council No. 437 to work with several priests on the new idea of forming a youth organization in the city.

On November 28, 1938, the idea of CYO was discussed at a K of C meeting described as "the largest and most representative gathering seen in years."

At another large K of C meeting on December 12, 1938, Jack Elder, then athletic director of the Chicago CYO and former member of the great Notre Dame football teams of 1928-30 was the keynote speaker for a discussion on youth organizations in Chicago, Detroit, New York, Milwaukee, Cincinnati and San Francisco. Most of the leaders in the Chicago CYO, according to Elder, were the young priests, who acted as moderators and coaches.

Similar meetings were also held at the Catholic Community Center on North Pennsylvania Street, where probably the idea of the new Catholic Youth Organization originated from Bishop Ritter, Father Fussenegger and Father Schoettelkotte.

At an additional meeting on January 16, 1939, a joint committee composed of members of the K of C and Indianapolis clergy adopted a resolution providing for a general committee to foster the development of CYO. Also, during a meeting on this same date, a motion was adopted donating $250 to start CYO.

At a dinner meeting on January 31, 1939 at the Columbia Club with Bishop Ritter presiding and John K. Ruckelshaus as chairman, it was decided that a campaign for funds for CYO would commence February 1, 1939 and conclude on February 15, 1939 with the goal of raising $12,000.

Father Busald, Peter G. Reilly and Thomas Quinn were chosen to serve with Bishop Ritter on the Advisory Board and a central office for coordination of CYO activities was established at the Catholic Community Center under the direction of Father Schoettelkotte.

With a newly organized board and money in the treasury, CYO began serving area youth. John Patrick Rooney of Schenectady, New York, was selected as the first lay director of CYO and Marjorie Boyle was employed as secretary, a position she would hold for the next 40 years.

The first official activity of the CYO was a city-wide spring dance held in the Cathedral High School Auditorium, attracting more than 1000 youth representing every parish in the city.

Director Rooney lost no time in organizing leagues at three levels for the baseball season with entries from parishes for the parochial league, 12 entries from parishes for the high school league and 14 teams signed up for the K of C senior league. A tennis league was also formed and steps were taken to organize a drama contest and other activities.

Almost from the beginning, the CYO in Indianapolis, as in Chicago, was energetically and enthusiastically supported by the young priests in the Indianapolis parishes. They became the moderators and coaches, especially in football.

From here, CYO progressed well and there were more activities for boys and girls of all ages to participate in — grade school, high school and senior groups.

The CYO experienced a few growing pains as well, such as a shortage of money for all of its many and varied activities. Many early CYO board members tussled with financial problems, however, time and time again, one or more board members quietly, privately and even secretly got the job done.

Two such board members were Frank McKinney and Francis Wilhelm. No one knows to this day how much these two men did for CYO without anyone knowing about it except for a few board members who by chance found out, usually long after the money and deeds were forthcoming.

The Catholic Youth Organization takes great pride in the fact that it has touched thousands upon thousands of young lives since 1939 and is greatly appreciative to all the dedicated and caring volunteers and financial donors who have given so much of themselves to help make the CYO what it is today. These unselfish adults along with the youth have helped to build the golden memories of CYO.

The Beginning — 1939

The Catholic Youth Organization was officially established by Bishop Joseph E. Ritter on February 1, 1939, with assistance from an organizational committee composed of K of C members from Council No. 437, headed by John Blackwell, and a group of interested priests, headed by Monsignor Albert Busald. The CYO began operations as a department of the Catholic Charities Bureau.

Beginning with the appointment of Father Charles Schoettelkotte as the first Indianapolis deanery CYO Director, the CYO was off to a fast start. Under the direction of Father Schoettelkotte, the CYO set out to supplement the Catholic home and schools in the care and education of youth. Hoping to attach young people to the church and to provide them with a good environment for their youth activities, the CYO developed spiritual, social, cultural and athletic activities according to the needs of youth.

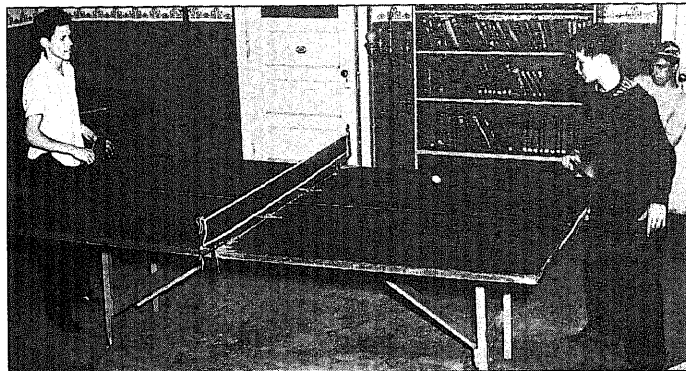

In 1939, existing parish football, basketball, baseball and softball programs were placed under the direction of the CYO. While these programs already existed for the grade school age children, a need for high school programs was immediately recognized. Therefore, a boys' softball and basketball league was organized for the high school students. The first CYO dance was also held in 1939 in an effort to bring the high school age youth together from throughout the city for a social gathering. In addition, the senior CYO conducted a golf tournament and other programs were begun to augment the Christian living experience young people were receiving at home and in schools.

In 1939, an apparent need of teenagers was the need for social contacts. It is not surprising then that the Junior CYO program flourished with social events such as dances, picnics and parties of various kinds. The CYO sought to provide these programs within the very shadow of the church or in such a fashion to foster attachment to their parish church.

As the years went on, other needs became apparent such as making youth aware of their Archdiocesan newspaper through participation in the Criterion Quiz Contest or encouraging more interest in cultural activities through the CYO style show and baking contest. The CYO also instituted a swimming meet, golf tournament, tennis tournament, table tennis tournament, talent contest and one act play contest to help teenagers develop their various God-given talents.

Serving the CYO in 1939 along with Father Schoettelkotte was Patrick Rooney, Executive Secretary and Marjorie Boyle, Secretary. Miss Boyle remained with the CYO as secretary until her retirement in 1978.

In the early days of CYO table tennis was one of the most popular indoor activities. This 1940 photograph was taken in the Little Flower Parish Clubroom. This sport certainly has not changed much over the past 50 years.

When the CYO Stadium was dedicated on September 12, 1949, this was the cover of the dedication book given to all fans who were in attendance.

The CYO Summer Camping program was begun in 1946. This photograph from the early years of CYO camp shows a group of young campers enjoying lunch at Camp Rancho Framasa. J. Earl Owens (seated) acted as the first director for the first boys session at camp. Father John Elford, who spent many hours at camp during his years as CYO director, is at the right enjoying the break.

The 1940's

Father Maurice Dugan assumed the responsibility of directing the CYO in January, 1940. During his short tenure, the first CYO Board of Directors was formed with Edward J. Fillenwarth, Sr., as chairman.

Communications were vastly improved in the early 1940's with the publication of the "CYO Bulletin." The Bulletin was mailed to local CYO members in all theatres of World War II with Frank English and Charles Fleetwood as the first editors.

In September, 1940, Father Richard Langen was appointed CYO Director. During his 2½ years of service, he organized a junior youth council. The purpose of this council was to coordinate activities among parishes in the Indianapolis Deanery. Jack Nelson of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish was elected as the first President of the Council.

In 1942, Father Langen was placed in charge of Sunday afternoon and evening socials for the servicemen at the K of C hall and was responsible for providing chaperones and entertainment. The program continued through the war, thanks to the cooperation of the Knights of Columbus, the NCCW and many parishes that provided food and labor for the operation and the CYO.

Father Richard Kavanagh began a 12 year term of office as CYO Director in June, 1943, and is largely responsible for the organization of the CYO on the Archdiocesan level. A great deal of expansion of activities and participation occurred during those 12 years. In 1943, the CYO assumed the operation of the Catholic Salvage Bureau with Fred Haunss acting as manager. In 1945, the CYO sponsored a weekly radio show on WISH called Youth and Religion. This effort fostered growth of CYO throughout the Archdiocese.

To meet the growing demands for the central organization of CYO on the Archdiocesan level, Archbishop Ritter elevated Father Kavanagh to the position of Archdiocesan Director of the CYO. Additionally, the first deanery directors were appointed outside Indianapolis by Archbishop Paul C. Schulte.

In 1945, thanks to the great generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dingley, the CYO received 280 acres of land in Brown County. Thus the CYO Summer Camping Program began, a program which has meant so much to the youth of the Archdiocese. The camp was named Rancho Framasa in honor of the Dingley's three daughters, Frances, Martha and Samuella. The first camping season in 1946 consisted of two sessions, one for the Junior Catholic Daughters of America, under the supervision of Miss Winifred Galvin. The other session was held for the St. Philip Neri Boy Scout Troop with Mr. J. Earl Owens acting as director.

To prepare for future developments, a camp committee was formed with Monsignor Albert Busald, Pastor of St. Philip Neri as chairman. The camp was given a grant by Lilly Endowment for a water filtration system and additional money was received from Archbishop Schulte for the construction of a dam for the present reservoir lake and Mrs. Fred Haunss who led a children's camp drive which provided needed funds for the treasury and popularized the camp with school children of the Archdiocese. In 1948, camp facilities were again improved with the construction of a showerhouse and a bunkhouse, both the gifts of K of C, Council No. 437.

1946 proved significant in yet another respect when the first organizational meeting was held with Mr. Harold Miller acting as chairman for the eventual construction of a CYO stadium. In 1947, a 13.2 acre tract of land was purchased at 16th and Harding Streets at which site the CYO Stadium was to be constructed. A stadium committee was immediately formed and Frank E. McKinney was named chairman. A fund drive was begun to obtain money for the development of the property. Construction began on the stadium in 1948. Formal dedication of the stadium occurred September 12, 1949 with Cathedral and Sacred Heart High Schools playing a double header.

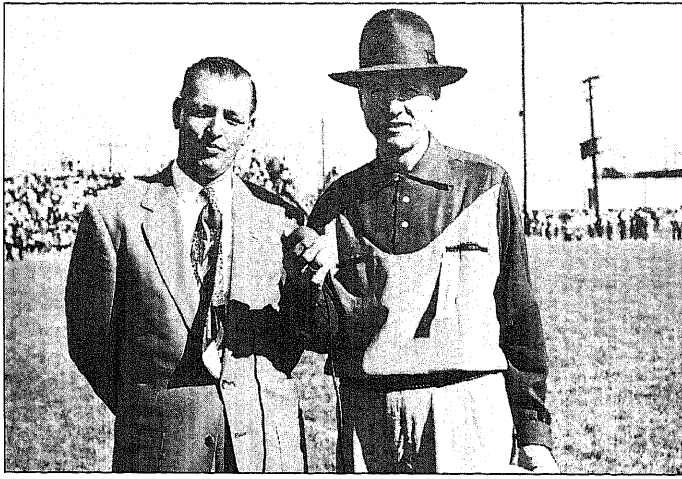

This photograph taken in the early 1940's shows two former CYO Directors at work. Father Richard Langen, (left), CYO Director from 1940-1943, and Father Richard Kavanagh, CYO Director from 1943-1955, accept a check to benefit the CYO from William Glennon (seated) and Joseph Davey, both very active members of the Knights of Columbus.

One of the first activities under the auspices of the Catholic Youth Organization was the summer baseball league. Although the exact year is unknown, this group of senior CYO members from Holy Rosary Parish participated in the league in the early 1940's.

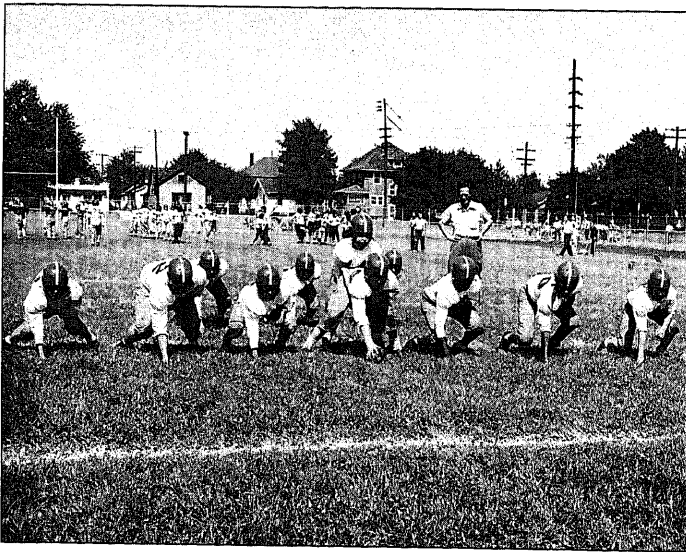

This photograph of the 1943 Holy Trinity Cadet Football League Champion is certainly a collector's item. The coach of the team was Joe Dezelan who moved on to Cathedral High School in 1944 to coach many of the finest football teams the city of Indianapolis has ever seen. The priest moderator of the team was Father Robert Hartman.

Junior CYO dances have always been one of the favorite activities on the CYO calendar. These young people certainly look as if they were enjoying themselves at this Junior CYO Dance held at St. Catherine Parish in 1950.

The CYO Football Program has always been well respected for developing many of the finest football players in the city of Indianapolis. These young men comprising the 1956 Cathedral Grade School football team are pictured as they prepare to play in the 1956 CYO Football Jamboree.

The 1950's

The decade of the 50's got underway with great promise and great hope for the future. This hope was bolstered in 1952 when the CYO was accepted as a participating agency by the Community Chest (now the United Way of Central Indiana). Additional camp improvements were made possible by gifts from Lilly Endowment, the Catholic Salvage Bureau and others.

Several new programs were added to the CYO activities calendar in the 1950's. Activities such as the Archdiocesan Youth Council, the One Act Play Festival, the Cadet Hobby Show, the National CYO Convention, the Junior Style Show, the Indiana Catholic Quiz Contest, the Junior CYO of the Year Contest, the Junior Baking Contest, the Summer Junior Baseball League, the Cadet Football Jamboree and the spectacular CYO Parochial School Songfest were all new additions to the CYO programming during the 1950's.

Mr. William S. Sahm was hired in February, 1954, as Executive Secretary. Mr. Sahm served in that capacity and later as Executive Director until his untimely death in 1973. In January, 1955, Father John P. Elford was named Archdiocesan CYO Director, succeeding Father Kavanagh for the next 12 years.

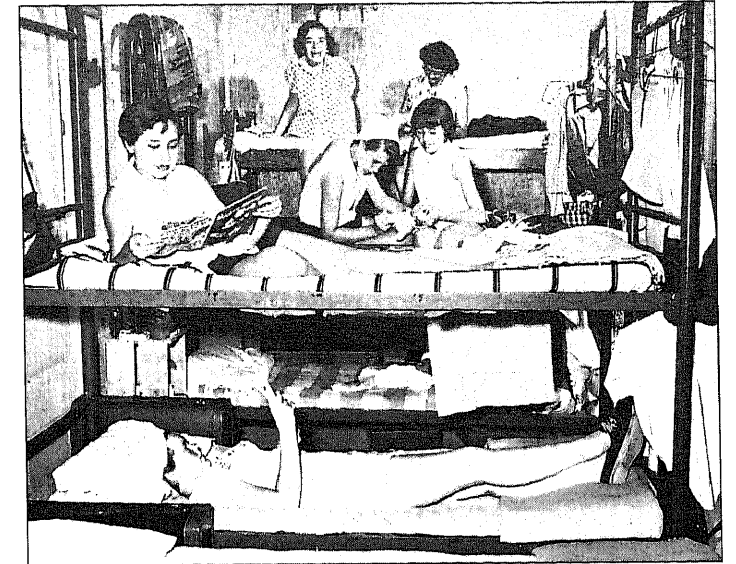

The first CYO Banquet was held in February, 1954, in the K of C Council 437 Auditorium. The highlight of the banquet was the presentation of the St. John Bosco Medal to 12 volunteers for outstanding service to youth. Mr. J. Earl Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Haunss, Mr. and Mrs. Larry V. Zapp, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dingley, Miss Winifred Galvin, Mrs. Agnes P. O'Connor, Miss Marjorie Boyle, Mr. Edward J. Fillenwarth, Sr., and Mr. Leo S. Evans became the first recipients of the highest honor bestowed upon a CYO volunteer.

Improvements in the CYO camping facilities continued in April 1955 when a drive was begun to provide funds for the construction of a swimming pool at Camp Rancho Framasa. This project was completed with the construction of an olympic-size pool in 1956. Among others, Bernard W. McGinty was instrumental in the completion of this facility. Additionally, George Desautels, Sr., spearheaded a committee which provided $2,300.00 for the building of a handicraft shop at Camp Rancho Framasa.

Improvements were also made to the CYO Stadium during 1955-56 as Frank E. McKinney contributed funds to construct a new pressbox and a cinder running track to the facility.

In an effort to meet the increased demands of a flourishing program, two part-time assistants were added to the CYO staff in 1957. William F. Kuntz and Leo J. Mahoney became the newest members of the staff. The rapidly growing programs also made it necessary to increase the size of the CYO office. Thus, in 1958 funds were provided by Archbishop Schulte and the Lilly Endowment for the construction of a new CYO office next to the CYO Stadium. The move was made in August and the Archbishop formally dedicated the building in September.

A week at CYO Summer Camp can be a very memorable and enjoyable event. These six young ladies undoubtedly had a few good stories about their stay at CYO Camp Rancho Framasa to take home to their parents.

The Catholic Youth Organization Office was located on West 16th Street from 1958 to 1979. This familiar building was familiar to youth and adults who participated in the programs and activities sponsored by the CYO.

The new CYO Office on 16th Street was formally dedicated by Archbishop Schulte in September 1958. Father John Elford, CYO Director at the time, and Monsignor Henry Hermann assisted the Archbishop in the dedication.

One of the best known and most successful football coaches ever in the state of Indiana, Joe Dezelan also officiated CYO football games and presented trophies at many championship events. In this 1963 photo, Joe is presenting the Co-Champion Trophy to the boys from St. Thomas Parish for their participation in the 1967 100-pound football league.

The CYO offers many and varied programs which allow young people to share their God-given talents with others. The CYO Music Contest has been one of those programs. This accordion quartet from St. Roch Parish featuring from left to right: Ann Louise Laker, Kathy Laker, Rosena Laker and Millie Laker, performed well at the 1961 Music Contest.

Bill Sahm, CYO Executive Secretary and later Executive Director from 1954 to 1973 presents three first place trophies to Karen Finn from St. Matthew Parish, for her excellence in the 1961 CYO Baking Contest.

The 1960's

The hope and promise of the 1950's gave way to steady and continued successful programming in the 1960's, with more and more youth participating than ever before. During this decade, several new adult advisory committees were formed to help lead the CYO to even greater heights of success. In addition, three new tracts of land were developed for use by the CYO helping the organization to keep up with the ever increasing and varied needs of youth.

In 1960, land was purchased for a new girls' camp in southern Brown County, thanks to a contribution by Mr. and Mrs. William B. Ansted, Jr. Upon the recommendations of Mrs. Ansted, the new camp was named Christina and plans were made to begin the camping program in 1961. The first camping season at Camp Christina offered five one-week sessions. The Inland Container Corporation Foundation provided $15,000.00 for the construction of a water filtration system and building.

The CYO has always been blessed with groups of adults who have given physical, financial and counsel assistance to the organization. Three such groups were begun in the early 1960's. The St. John Bosco Ladies Guild was formed as a ladies' auxiliary, with the specific purpose of aiding the CYO through a planned series of events. Mrs. Fred Haunss was elected as the guild's first president. A Priests' Advisory Committee, consisting of priests from the Indianapolis Deaneries was formed and began functioning in 1963. A Public Relations Advisory Committee, designed to improve the communications flow of the CYO as well as enhance its reputation within the community, was formed in 1966.

An increase in existing CYO facilities occurred in 1962 when the CYO Monsignor Downey Athletic Field came into being. This 13.6 acre tract of land at the northwest corner of Perkins and Raymond Streets on the southside of Indianapolis was turned over to the CYO by the Archdiocese. The Monsignor Downey K of C Council 3660 provided for many years funds for the installation and maintenance of the facilities which includes two baseball diamonds, two football fields and a softball diamond. In 1968, the CYO purchased 6.5 acres of ground adjacent to Chatard High School and began developing the new property as a neighborhood recreational area and playground. With the cooperation of K of C Council 3433, the CYO developed the Ray Katzenberger, Jr., CYO North Field which included a baseball diamond, a softball diamond and a football field.

The CYO Talent Contest has always been one of the highlights of the CYO Summer Calendar. Holy Name parish has historically produced many fine participants and winning acts for the contest. These young people from Holy Name presented their rendition of "South Pacific" at the 1965 Talent Contest.

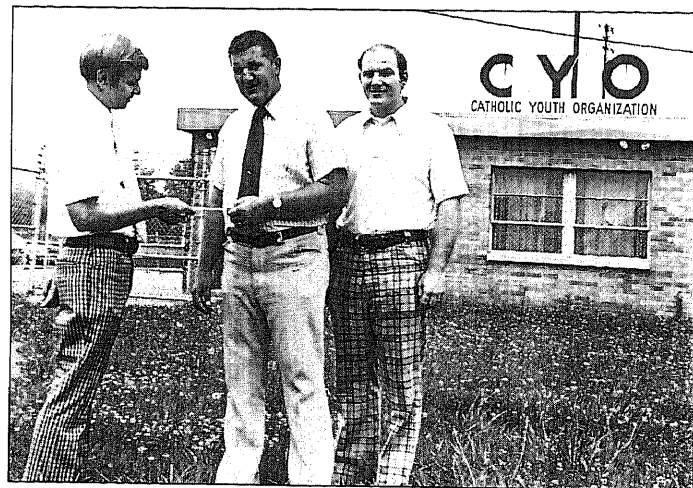

Archbishop Schulte and Father John Eford formally dedicate CYO Camp Christina in June 1961. Today, just as in 1961, campers live in large eight-person tents with a centrally located restroom and shower facility during their stay at camp.

Leadership of the CYO Board of Directors for the 1970-71 calendar year was in the very capable hands of John Huser (left), president, Virginia Grande, secretary and James (Tippy) Wilhelm, vice-president. The CYO has always enjoyed tremendous leadership from all members of the CYO Board of Directors throughout the years.

Bob Vernick (left) Director of the Catholic Salvage Bureau presents a check to CYO Executive Bill Kuntz and Assistant Executive Director Dennis Southerland for campships to send needy children to CYO Summer Camp in 1975.

The CYO has always taken great pride in developing youth leaders throughout the Archdiocese. In this photograph, taken at the 1975 CYO Archdiocesan Convention at Scezna Memorial High School, Bill Sahm (left) of Immaculate Heart Parish and President of the National CYO Youth Council and Father Gerald Kirkoff, then chaplain of Scezna Memorial High School, pose with Nancy Fulner of Sacred Heart Parish in Jeffersonville and Greg Gallo of St. Charles Parish in Bloomington as they receive the Roger Graham Memorial Award as the outstanding male and female youth leaders in the Archdiocese.

The 1970's

During the decade of the 1970's the CYO began to take a new direction regarding its programming and services. With the structure of many parishes beginning to change, a great deal of thought and planning went into who should be eligible to participate in CYO programs and activities as well as how can the organization better assist adult volunteers in their quest to serve youth to the best of their ability.

In 1970, the CYO Board of Directors expressed concern for providing a better community base for the organization and its activities. Therefore, the Priests' Advisory Committee originated discussions which culminated in the CYO program advancing in additional directions in 1971. Following a two year study of the Cadet (grade school age) eligibility rule, and with the approval of the Archbishop, altered the Archdiocesan charter to include non-Catholic children in that portion of the program. The policy change permitted parishes the option of adding these children to their programs and complete the opening of CYO activities in all age groups.

In June 1973, Mr. William Sahm, Executive Director of the CYO since 1954, died. During his tenure as CYO Director, his boundless energies were devoted to the expansion and modernization of the varied programs and activities of the CYO. Upon his death, Mr. William F. Kuntz, a part-time program assistant since 1957, was named Executive Director.

Under Bill Kuntz' leadership, the CYO continued to enjoy growth in both its programs as well as its effect upon the lives of young people. In addition, facilities were continually upgraded. Major improvements occurred at Camp Rancho Framasa and Camp Christina in 1974, with assistance from Lilly Endowment and other corporate grants. Perhaps the biggest change in facilities, though, occurred in June 1979, when the CYO office was moved from the 16th Street address to the remodeled Latin School building.

In 1974, the CYO began to offer training programs for its adult volunteers in an effort to provide good Christian leadership for the youth participating in CYO programs. The initial training experience was called SPERO and additional leadership seminars were conducted in 1976 through 1978. This training experience was good but the need to have the volunteer training programs under one umbrella became apparent. Therefore, in late 1979, the CYO Leadership and Service Institute was proposed as the certification program for CYO volunteers.

One of the highlights of the 1973 National CYO Convention held in Indianapolis and hosted by the CYO was the keynote address given by Danny Thomas. In this photograph Nella and Joe Delaney visit with Danny Thomas at a reception given in his honor.

Marjorie Boyle was hired as a CYO secretary in January 1939. Following a career with the CYO which spanned 40 years, Marjorie retired in 1978. Marjorie was also recognized for her service to the CYO by being selected as one of the first recipients of the St. John Bosco Medal in 1954.

Through the years, numerous persons have spoken in attendance at the CYO Awards Banquet. In this photograph from the 1970 CYO Awards Banquet, then Father Gerald A. Gettelfinger, later to be Monsignor Gettelfinger and today Bishop Gettelfinger of the Evansville Diocese, addressed banquet guests as the Superintendent of Schools for the Archdiocese.

As part of the 50th Anniversary Celebration of the CYO, an alumni division was added to the 1989 Talent Contest and several groups of adults reunited to participate in the show. This group of adults from Holy Name Parish, each member having participated in the Talent Contest as a high school teenager in the 1960's, performed a 50's medley from the movie "Grease." During the official celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the CYO on March 11, 1989 at the Indiana Roof Ballroom, the CYO honored its past Executive Directors by presenting them with the St. John Bosco Medal. Receiving the St. John Bosco Medals for their service and dedications were (left/right) Monsignor Richard T. Kavanagh, Reva S. Sahn for the late William S. Sahn, Florence E. Kuntz for the late William F. Kuntz and Father John P. Eford. (Photo courtesy of THE CRITERION)

The 1980's

After 40 years of serving youth, constantly growing and changing to meet their needs, the CYO looked to the future to develop programming and services to meet the wholistic needs of youth. Youth ministry programming was sweeping the nation and in the early 1980's the CYO developed its own youth ministry program to meet the spiritual, emotional, physical, educational and social aspects of a young person's life. Of course, the traditional CYO programs which had been evolving the past 40 years remained the cornerstone on which the future of the organization was built.

Continuing with the development of the CYO certification program for adult volunteers, the CYO created a new staff position in March, 1980. The Administrator of Volunteer Services was responsible for the creation and implementation of the new certification program. In October 1980, the first Leadership and Service Institute was conducted. The purpose of the institute is to encourage supervisors to develop their qualities of leadership within a Christian reference and to refine their skills as effective youth ministers. Additionally, the institute serves to make supervisors more aware of the psychological and spiritual impact they have upon the young participants.

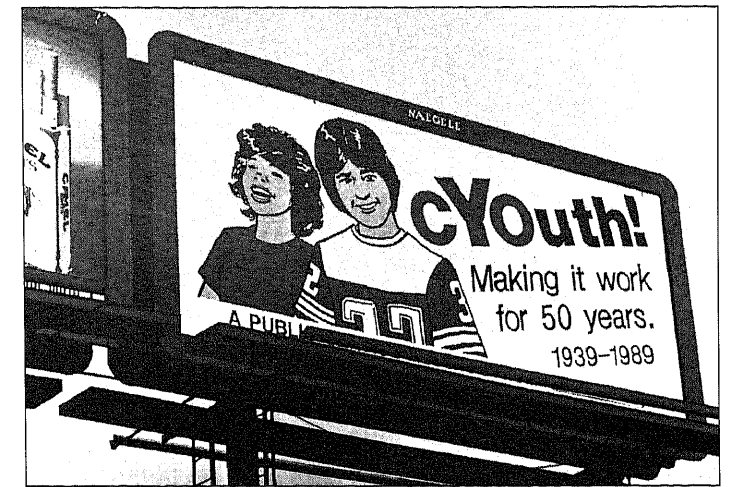

In June 1980, the CYO created a second new position, the Administrator of Teen Services. This new position was responsible for working with the high school age youth participating in the programs and activities offered by CYO. In addition, this new administrator was charged with the task of developing the CYO youth ministry program.

In 1983, Archbishop Edward T. O'Meara, S.T.D., asked the CYO to support and act as a resource for parish and deanery youth ministry. Since then, efforts have been made to develop and implement various leadership and training programs for adults and youth. The CYO office works to coordinate and communicate with deanery and parish representatives in carrying out the vision of youth ministry in the Archdiocese.

Since 1983, participation and involvement in CYO Youth Ministry has increased dramatically with more high school age youth participating than ever before. CYO Retreat programs — (Quest, for freshman and sophomores; Search, for juniors and seniors; and Christian Awakening, for seniors), are filled to capacity. The CYO Archdiocesan Youth Conference attracts over 800 youth each year and young people from all over the Archdiocese have actively participated in pro-life activities, peace and justice workshops, Christian Leadership Institutes and the Advent Vespers Service. Participation in the traditional CYO youth activities of athletics, cultural, social and service programming has remained constant giving further hope for a very bright future for the CYO.

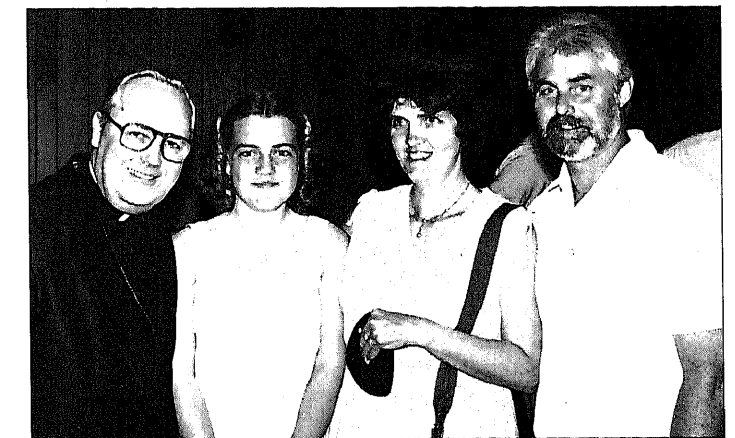

Programs such as the National Youth Ministry Certificate Program, SPERO, Interim Program and various inservice days have involved and trained adults acting as youth ministers to better meet the growing needs of youth in the Archdiocese.

A sign of the times — this billboard announcing the 50th Anniversary of the CYO was placed at four locations throughout Indianapolis in January 1989. The theme of the billboard — cYouth! Making It Work for 50 Years — was developed by the CYO Public Relations Advisory Committee to commemorate the CYO's Golden Jubilee.

Since 1939, high school age youth have been extremely active in promoting the programs and activities sponsored by the CYO. This group of teenagers promoted the CYO by participating in the 1983 St. Patrick's Day Parade sponsored by the Indianapolis Athletic Club. (Photo courtesy of THE CRITERION)

Since his installment as Archbishop of Indianapolis Archdiocese January 10, 1980, Archbishop Edward T. O'Meara, S.T.D. has been extremely supportive of the CYO and what the organization has always tried to accomplish. Each year, Archbishop O'Meara attends as many CYO functions as his schedule will allow affirming the work of the CYO volunteers and the youth they serve. In this photograph, Archbishop O'Meara poses with Sue (left), Ann and Jack Hutt at the Monsignor Albert Busaid Awards ceremony. (Photo courtesy of THE CRITERION)

The Future — Beyond 1989

Fifty years of existence and success is by itself a significant milestone. It stands as a monument to people too numerous to mention. It is safe to say, however, that without the support of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, participating parishes, the United Way of Central Indiana leading the way with community support, as well as the thousands upon thousands of adult volunteers who continually give of themselves for the betterment of youth, the CYO would not be celebrating its Golden Jubilee in 1989.

The CYO has progressed from primitive beginnings to a thriving and resourceful program. Its progress has not always been easy as growing pains have certainly been felt. Because of major changes within society as well as the structure of the family itself, the CYO must better prepare for the future and anticipate the wants and needs of youth that certainly will surface within the next 50 years of the organization's exis-

There is certainly room for expansion of CYO programs and services to meet the ever growing list of needs and concerns of young people in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. In fact, the time to plan for the future is now and the CYO has begun to look ahead to evaluate what direction the organization will take in the next 50 years.

And, while no one really knows what events will transpire in the future to dictate the future endeavors of the CYO, one thing is certain. That is to say that the CYO will continue to serve the needs of the youth of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis to the best of its ability. And, with the continued advice, assistance, loyalty and friendship of caring adults willing to give of themselves for the betterment of youth, the CYO will certainly meet the challenges presented to it within the next 50 years.

CYO LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE INSTITUTES

The role of the adult volunteer supervisor continues to be of vital importance in all CYO programs and activities. The potential impact each supervisor has upon the lives of youth can be overwhelming, making it essential that opportunities for growth and development of leadership skills be made available to them.

With this in mind, the Catholic Youth Organization sponsors two Leadership and Service Institutes each year. The first LSI of the 1988-89 year was, September 14, 1988. The guest speakers were: Angela Arnold, Activities Therapy Supervisor, Koala Center; Jeffrey Bell, Corrections Officer, Marion County Sheriff's Department, and Dr. Louis Angelichio, Specialist in Orthopedic Surgery and Sports Medicine.

Our second Institute was March 15, 1989. The guest speakers were: Gregory Hale, Ph.D., Counseling Psychologist with Lennon and Associates; Donald Zimmerman, Ph.D., Supervisor of Lawrence Township School Psychological Services and Robert P. Kirsch, Director of the Alcohol and Drug Center at Butler University.

SEARCH FOR CHRISTIAN MATURITY

Searches - 3; Participants - 115

The CYO Search for Christian Maturity is basically a week-end experience in a dynamic Christian Living. The program is an instrument through which the Holy Spirit speaks to and directs young people through the words, actions and lives of their peers.

It is an attempt to establish a community in Christ. The community consists of team members and/or teenage/young adult searchers. A search weekend is an opportunity to meet new people; it is not a mysterious, magic formula that will convert young people and commit them to Christ forever. Its principle purpose is to give youth a deeper insight into the meaning of life — to be lived in today's world. Its unique genius is the youth to youth approach. The majority of the 10 - 15 member team are young people who have made their own Search who wish to share their experiences with others their own age. The Search is designed for Juniors and Seniors in high school.

QUEST RETREAT PROGRAM

Quests - 3; Participants - 125

The name Quest itself conveys a "searching for," "a coming to long for," "a journey." We in the program proclaim to all involved in it, to take the risk to find the real you. We stress that it is not a retreat as such, but a getting together to find out more about ourselves, friendships, and God . . . an experience. If the participants come away with a deeper insight from the program, then we feel it is an added evidence that God's grace is at work. Through discussions, games, talks, movies, scripture, skits and much, much more, the Quest Retreat centers around the three circles of life: Love of God, Love of Self and Love of Neighbor. The program is open to all freshmen and sophomores in high school and is an exciting mixture of fun times and serious times, working together with other young people.

CHRISTIAN AWAKENING RETREAT

The Christian Awakening retreat specifically designed for seniors in high school was recently added to the CYO Retreat Program. The Christian Awakening Retreat was initiated in the CYO Program primarily for Catholic students who attend public schools and who would not have the opportunity to attend such a retreat through their high school. In addition, the Christian Awakening Retreat is also used by deaneries within our Archdiocese who either do not have enough seniors to provide this retreat or those who have too many students, but can not provide more than one Christian Awakening a year. The Christian Awakening Retreat is a dynamic experience which takes an indepth look at the participants, attention to where they are in terms of themselves, others and God. It allows the student to come to an appreciation and value of themselves as a young adult, as well as an appreciation and value of those particular people in their lives — especially parents, relatives and friends who make their lives meaningful. There was one Christian Awakening Retreat in 1988-89 with 60 participants.

RETREAT TRAINING WORKSHOP

Sessions - 1; Participants - 52

This retreat training workshop has been designed to help prospective team members to sharpen and broaden their retreat skills. This three-day Retreat/Workshop is open to all high school and college age students who have a desire to share with their peers. We feel this workshop is a retreat experience in itself and can be used as a tool for parishes who wish to have their parish youth trained for retreats in their backhome settings.

CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

CLI's - 1; Participants - 91

The Institute offers an opportunity for leadership development through an intense period of learning and community living. The program is an indepth experience in community building, communication skills, leadership, organizational skills, and personal growth. This will enable each young person to take a leadership role in parish or school youth ministry. The process includes skills development, worship and recreation.

INTERIM PROGRAM

Interim is a program for dedicated Catholic men and women, young in both mind and spirit, who are willing to give two years of their lives in serving the church in youth ministry. An applicant should demonstrate leadership ability and be at least 21 years of age.

Information is available through the CYO office.

YOUTH MINISTRY CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

A program in Youth Ministry designed specifically for those desiring specialized knowledge and skills in Youth Ministry. The two year program integrates course work, basic theological understanding and culminates in a youth ministry project. Students in the program will receive a Certificate in Youth Ministry. Courses may be taken for graduate credit. The twelve credit hours earned by a student in the Certificate Program can be applied toward the MRE or MTS degree at St. Meinrad School of Theology.

1989 YOUTH MINISTRY LEADERS DAY

Date: September 16, 1989

This day reacquaints us with the importance of utilizing our own experience for the basis of our own spiritual growth. By growing through our own experiences we can help young people to trust and learn from their own experiences. This program was held in Columbus, Indiana at St. Columba parish. There were over 100 present that day.

I WANT TO LIVE WORKSHOP

The goals of this particular workshop sponsored by the CYO enables the participants to begin to clarify personal values concerning specific life issues. The workshop also provides training for persons interested in facilitating this experience in their own parish, school or deanery. This workshop is presented on a yearly basis.

CYO CAMPS

A PROGRAM DESIGNED FOR YOU

TRADITIONAL CAMPING

(Ages 8 - 15)

A Traditional Camping experience is available to boys and girls at Camp Rancho Framasa and Christina. A day at CYO Camp is creatively structured so there are a variety of opportunities which encourage deeper understanding of God, self and others. Through participation in programs such as camp crafts, horseback riding, handicrafts, swimming, canoeing, archery, camp-outs and a challenge course, the campers come to know the wonders of nature and the joy that comes with self confidence in newly acquired physical, social and mental skills.

PRE-ADVENTURE CAMPING

(Ages 11 - 13)

The CYO Pre-Adventure Camping Program is available at Camp Rancho Framasa only. In addition to participating in all traditional day and evening camp activities, campers will experience the excitement of a half day canoe trip down Flatrock River and the challenge of spelunking in the limestone caverns of southern Indiana. Pre-Adventure Camping is available each week to a limited number of campers on a first come first serve basis.

ADVENTURE CAMPING

(Ages 13 - 15)

The CYO Adventure Camping Program is available at both Camp Rancho Framasa and Christina for boys and girls who want greater challenges than what traditional resident camping can offer. Adventure Campers should be in good physical condition as they will camp-out three to four nights, cook almost all of their own meals, participate in an overnight canoe trip, backpack on a half-day wilderness hike and a full-day spelunking excursion in the limestone caverns of southern Indiana. Adventure Camping is available each week to a limited number of campers on a first come first serve basis.

ACTUAL WILDERNESS EXPERIENCE CAMPING

(A.W.E., Ages 13 - 15)

Actual Wilderness Camping (A.W.E.) has been developed for the older, more experienced male campers who want to participate in a program that emphasizes rustic outdoor living skills designed to help them become self sufficient. The unique aspect of the A.W.E. Camping Experience is that campers live in a platform tent deep in the backwoods of Camp Rancho Framasa. Campers will learn group cooperation as they pack and carry all needed food, water, clothing and toiletries for the week. In addition, campers will learn map and compass reading, wildlife tracking and identification and environmental awareness. This program was offered to a limited number of male campers for the week of July 9 - 14 only.

CHEERLEADING CAMP

(Ages 8 - 15)

Cheerleading camp is a popular program held at CYO Camp Christina for girls who are interested in becoming cheerleaders or who wish to improve their cheerleading skills and learn new techniques. In addition to offering all the features of a traditional camping experience, CYO Cheerleading Camp provides the opportunity for participants to share ideas and techniques under the guidance of high school and college cheerleaders, while at the same time enhancing the development of CYO sportsmanship and ethics.

NEW FOR 1989

SONRISA CHALLENGE COURSE

The Sonrisa Challenge Course is a low ropes, 19 station obstacle course which has recently been constructed in the beautiful woodlands at Camp Rancho Framasa. The course which will be available for all age groups using Camp Rancho Framasa presents various non-competitive challenges that are designed to enhance skills in the areas of leadership, problem solving, communication, self-esteem, trust, decision making and team work. It is anticipated that all campers can test their skills on the Sonrisa Challenge Course during their stay at camp.

TRADITIONAL CAMPING FEATURES

|--|-------------------------|
| Horseback Riding   | Camp Crafts             |

CYO CAMP — A PLACE FOR ALL SEASONS

The CYO Camps are owned and operated by the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. Since 1946 the CYO has served the youth, of greater Indianapolis and across the state, in the summer camping program. The life and work of the Camps continues on throughout the fall, winter and spring. People of all ages have an opportunity to experience the wonderments of the CYO Camps. The camp areas are available for youth and adult retreats, family and group reunions, school and church meetings and conferences. Family camp and retreat weekends take place in the spring and fall. The CYO Camps also support environmental education and serve as an appropriate classroom. The CYO would be glad to help you in the planning of your event. For rental and program information please contact the CYO office.

CYO CAMP RANCHO FRAMASA (BOYS AND GIRLS)

Total 1989 Attendance at
Camp Rancho Framasa - 902

NOTE: Rancho Framasa offered in 1989 three weeks for girls and three weeks for boys. The figures listed here include only campers during the regular summer season. Also attending camp on weekends during the year are more than 2,000 members of Junior CYO units, Junior C.D.A., Boy Scout troops, Girl Scout troops, High School Marching Bands, plus various young adult groups, parish groups and school groups. One of the attractive programs at Rancho Framasa is horseback riding, which was instituted in 1964 and expanded the following year. A recreation pavilion was added to the facilities in 1966 and the kitchen was renovated in 1972. In the fall of 1973 and extending into the spring of 1974, a new winterized water system was installed at the camp. A new pool deck was laid and the pipes around the pool were replaced, lavatory and shower facilities were added to each of the four older cabins. This was done with the hope that the camp could be used more often and longer into the colder months by groups who wish to enjoy the great out-of-doors.

CYO CAMP CHRISTINA — (BOYS & GIRLS)

Total 1989 Attendance at
Camp Christina — 400

NOTE: The 1989 season at Camp Christina was the 29th in the camp's history. The camp offered seven one-week sessions. The staff is composed of a combination of Senior and Junior Counselors. The campers are housed in tents erected on concrete floors, with two counselors living in each tent.

The property for Camp Christina was given to the Archdiocese by Mr. and Mrs. William B. Ansted, Jr. Mr. Ansted, who is deceased, was a member of St. Thomas Aquinas Parish and a member of the CYO Board for many years. Although more development remains to be accomplished in future years, the camp has been most fortunate in that a number of individuals and firms, including the Inland Container Corporation Foundation, the Monsignor Downey K of C Council No. 3660, Stark & Wetzel employees, and the Bell Telephone Pioneers, have contributed to the material progress of the camp. The most recent improvements include a pavilion adjoining the kitchen facilities, constructed in the spring of 1980 and a new dock was constructed around the swimming lake in 1986.

The CYO gratefully acknowledges all gifts which have made possible this fine facility and the extension of our camping program. We are especially grateful for the assistance of the St. John Bosco Ladies' Guild, organized in 1962, which has contributed substantially to the CYO camping program.

CYO CAMPERSHIP PROGRAM

In 1989, thanks to increased assistance from individuals and groups, the CYO was able to offer, in whole or in part, a camping experience to 150 children who otherwise would not have been able to attend. Our special thanks are extended to the St. John Bosco Ladies' Guild, the Catholic Salvage Bureau, the K of C Councils, and many private donors, all of whom provided the necessary funds and coordinating work to allow this program to grow and flourish.

If you know of a deserving and needy child of camp age, please refer that person's name to the CYO office shortly after March 1, 1990. We will do everything possible to assure him or her a week at camp.

SCOUTING AWARDS

I LIVE MY FAITH AWARD FOR GIRLS AGES 9 - 11

The "I Live My Faith Award" is the official religious recognition program of the United States Roman Catholic Church for girls (ages 9 - 11) enrolled in the Girl Scouts of the USA, the Camp Fire Girls, Inc., The Junior Catholic Daughters of America, and the Junior Daughters of Isabella. In a diocese, this program is administered and supervised by the Diocesan Youth Director or an authorized delegate. Diocesan Youth Directors may extend the use of the program outside of an organizational setting by permitting groups of girls together with adult moderators to engage in these projects in parishes.

MARIAN MEDAL FOR GIRLS AGES 11 - 18

The Marian Medal is the award of the Roman Catholic Church in the USA for girls enrolled in the Girl Scouts of the USA, the Camp Fire Girls, the Junior Catholic Daughters of America, and the Junior Daughters of Isabella. In a diocese, this program is administered and supervised by the Diocesan Youth Director or an authorized delegate. Diocesan Youth Directors may extend the use of the program outside of an organizational setting by permitting groups of girls together with adult moderators to engage in these projects in parishes.

PARVULI DEI AWARD FOR CUB SCOUTS

This award is a recognition that the Catholic Church gives to the Cub Scouts and Webelo Scouts for advancement in religious knowledge and spiritual formation. Its purpose is to help the boy become more aware of God's presence in his daily life, especially within his home and community.

AD ALTARE DEI AWARD FOR BOY SCOUTS

The purpose of the award is to help scouts develop a fully Christian way of life. The program is organized in steps, based on the Sacraments. These encounters with Christ are our best means toward spiritual growth.

FAMILY OF GOD AWARD FOR 2ND AND 3RD GRADERS

The Family of God Program is an activity series developed to compliment the catechetical efforts of the parish and family with children in 2nd and 3rd grades. The parents and adults who serve as advisors to the children help them to grow in religious awareness by talking about the experiences that make up the program.

POPE PIUS XII AWARD FOR SENIOR SCOUTS AND EXPLORERS

This award is for Scouts of high school age and Explorers of the Catholic faith. If the young man is a Scout in a troop, he must have received the Ad Altare Dei Award before he can qualify for the Pope Pius XII Award. Girls in Exploring are eligible for this program.

MONSIGNOR ALBERT BUSALD AWARD

This award was instituted in 1970 as a second service award for adult volunteers who are not yet eligible for the St. John Bosco Medal. It was designed to enable the CYO to recognize these fine volunteers and encourage them to continue their service. The award is named to memorialize a great friend of the CYO and young people, Monsignor Albert Busald.

ST. JOHN BOSCO GUILD

Now in its twenty-sixth year of operation, the St. John Bosco Guild is a ladies' organization designed to promote interest in the Catholic Youth Organization and its programs, and to offer financial aid and advisory assistance to the camping programs at Camps Rancho Framasa and Christina as well as other facilities of the organization.

Membership is open to all women of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, although the organization is concentrated in the parishes of the Indianapolis Deaneries. Membership totals more than 500 for the current year.

Responsibility for the success of the St. John Bosco Guild rests with an Executive Committee who are led by the Officers. The Guild is organized, under these two groups of leaders, into five districts. The President of the Guild also serves as an "ex-officio" member of the CYO Board of Directors during her term of office.

Each district of the Guild sponsors one major activity each year with revenues from these efforts directed partly toward providing "camperships" at Rancho Framasa and Christina for deserving and needy children.
