CYO COACHES EFFECTIVENESS PROGRAM

The Coaches Effectiveness Program will help CYO volunteer coaches to meet the challenges and experience the many rewards of coaching young athletes. Coaches are exposed to the "tools" for developing a positive coaching style that will promote the acceptable values of society by teaching young people more than the skills of the sport. Because coaches in the CYO program have such an excellent opportunity to provide a valuable life experience for their athletes and their leadership is the most important element in making CYO a good learning experience, this course is a requirement for all coaches. It would be negligent for the CYO not to provide coaches with some training and preparation for their important ministry in the Church.

This course is dedicated to the countless coaches who, by giving unselfishly of their time and talents, make it possible for youth to enjoy the benefits of athletic participation.

CYO CAMPS A PROGRAM DESIGNED FOR YOU

CYO Camp is proud to have provided quality camping opportunities for young people for the past 47 years with a strong dedication to quality programming through a variety of activities. CYO Camp's tradition of excellence continues in 1993. All campers from all ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds are most welcome and are encouraged to join us for this fun-filled camp experience.

CAMP COUNSELORS

The CYO Camp Counselor is selected from many fine young men and women from throughout Indiana. Each of these individuals must complete a lengthy essay style application, a personal interview and a 1 week to 3 week training session all prior to camp starting. Every staff member is professionally trained in the subjects of neglect and abuse, aquatic wildlife, Native American culture and American Red Cross First Aid and CPR. Forty percent of the staff was Lifeguard certified in 1993. The commitment of the CYO Camp is to hire the highly motivated, compassionate and mature individual and then to provide them with all of the professional training needed to be a minister to each camper in a residential outdoor setting.

TRADITIONAL CAMPING

(Ages 7-15)

The traditional Camping Program now offers two camping dimensions for campers ages 7-15. For the younger campers, ages 7-10, the program scheduled numerous activities designed especially for them. Activities such as a petting zoo, scavenger hunt, group cook-out and camp-out, creek hiking and numerous craft items are incorporated into the usual traditional activities associated with camp. In the second program for campers between the ages of 10-15, campers can choose one area in which they wish to concentrate on during the week. These areas include horsemanship, aquatics, nature, archery, leadership, sports and games, ceramics, Native American culture, and film and drama. Campers participate in these selected program areas for 90 minutes four of the five mornings while at camp.

CO-ED CAMPING

This year for the third time co-ed camping was offered at Camp Rancho Framasa. All campers participated in the programs and activities at camp with boys and girls being housed at separate areas of the camp. Co-ed camping is being offered to allow brothers and sisters to attend camp during the same week, make it possible for boys and girls from the same schools and neighborhoods to attend together and enhance greater socialization skills thereby providing an even better experience for the campers.

ADVENTURE CAMPING

(Ages 13-15)

The adventure camping is a co-ed program open to teens ages 13-15. Adventure campers make a base camp at CYO Camp Rancho Framasa and take daily trips throughout the week. The week is filled with a spelunking trip, an overnight canoe trip, an overnight hiking trip and a day of pontooning on Lake Monroe.

ADVENTURES PLUS

(Ages 15-17)

The Adventures Plus Camping is a week of traveling, hiking, backpacking, horseback riding, whitewater rafting and camping for the 15-17 year old. Campers will spend a day participating in group building activities, packing food and organizing the vans they will be using in their travels. The next day, campers travel to West Virginia where they spend one day whitewater rafting on the New River in West Virginia and one day horseback riding in the same area. Two days will find the campers hiking the Appalachian Trail and camping in the back country for the evening. On the return home a day and night is spent visiting the Ohio Caverns and attending the outdoor drama of "Blue Jacket" in Xenia, Ohio. Each night is spent camping outdoors as well. The eight day co-ed trip occurs in mid July and 23 campers attended in 1993.

COUNSELOR IN TRAINING PROGRAM

(Students entering 10th-12th grade)

This week long CIT program is designed to strengthen advanced camping skills. The program encourages leadership responsibility, motivation and initiative. It also helps to strengthen identity of self and the importance of contributions to a group, recognizes talent and skills, gives practical experience in basic counseling and educates the CIT in CYO history and philosophy. By the end of the week each CIT will have assisted in all aspects of the program from the wake-up bell to the closing prayer at campfire. In 1993 21 girls and 6 boys participated in the CIT program. This year the CIT's resided at the newly built platform tent site, Skemotah Village.

FAMILY CAMPING

This year a weekend of family camping was offered at Camp Rancho Framasa. Each family had the option of staying one or more nights and participating in family camping. This week included horseback riding, swimming, sports and other specialized programs designed just for the family campers.

In 1993 41 persons attended the July 4th weekend of family camping.

SONRISA CHALLENGE COURSE

The Sonrisa Challenge Course is a low ropes, 19 station obstacle course which has recently been constructed in the beautiful woodlands at Camp Rancho Framasa. The course which will be available for all age groups using Camp Rancho Framasa presents various non-competitive challenges that are designed to enhance skills in the areas of leadership, problem solving, communication, self-esteem, trust, decision making and team work. It is anticipated that all campers can test their skills on the Sonrisa Challenge Course during their stay at camp.

CYO CAMP — A PLACE FOR ALL SEASONS

The CYO Camps are owned and operated by the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. Since 1946 the CYO has served the youth, of greater Indianapolis and across the state, in the summer camping program. The life and work of the Camps continues on throughout the fall, winter and spring. People of all ages have an opportunity to experience the wonderments of the CYO Camps. The camp areas are available for youth and adult retreats, family and group reunions, school and church meetings and conferences. Family camp and retreat weekends take place in the spring and fall. The CYO Camps also support environmental education and serve as an appropriate classroom. The CYO would be glad to help you in the planning of your event. For rental and program information please contact CYO Camp.

FALL WEEKEND

(Ages 7-15)

Camp Rancho Framasa features a fall weekend in October for campers. Staffed by the summer counselors, activities include handicrafts, archery, canoeing, games and more. On Saturday evening after celebrating Mass and dinner, there is a dance, complete with square dancing, hay bales, apple bobbing, pumpkin pie eating contest, pumpkin carving, piñatas filled with treats, and a haunted house. In 1992 136 campers attended the CO-ED weekend.

SKEMOTAH VILLAGE

(Ages 12-15)

Built in time for the 1993 camping season Skemotah Village is two platform tents nestled in the wooded hills of Rancho Framasa. At the primitive site campers would spend the night and each morning at the Village. During the morning hours the campers enjoyed an outdoor activity with their two counselors. Activities included nature studies, bird watching, wildlife tracking, compass and topographical map reading, trail construction, hiking and outdoor cooking. In the afternoon the Skemotah campers joined the main camp and participated in traditional activities, such as horseback riding, swimming, archery, handicrafts, games, challenge course, canoeing, dinner in the dining hall, chapel, evening games, campfire and more. Campers would return to the Village each night after campfire. In 1993 both sessions for Skemotah were full at 12 per week.

MUSTANG CAMP

(Ages 13-15)

A first ever horse camp at CYO Camp Rancho Framasa, this one week co-ed session in August was filled to capacity. The 12 campers learned basic riding skills, grooming, feeding, trail riding and general care for the horse and tack. The Mustang campers also took a field trip to the Indianapolis Zoo for a horseshow and to the Johnson County Horsepark for a tour of where the Pan-Am equestrian events were held. Campers also enjoyed the traditional camp activities during their stay.

CYO CAMP RANCHO FRAMASA

Total 1993 attendance at Camp Rancho Framasa was 1,231

NOTE: Rancho Framasa offered in 1993 seven weeks of camping programs. Also attending camp during the year were 2,000 people from groups such as: St. Luke's Confirmation Class, St. Columba/Bartholomew Youth Groups, Methodist Hospital staff training, Jameson Camp Staff Training, Cathedral and Chatard High School cross-country teams, Cursillo group, Franklin College Sorority group, Butler University Symphony Orchestra, Geier Home for Adults retreat, St. Pius 4th grade class, Lakota YMCA staff training, and many other groups. One of the attractive programs at Rancho Framasa is horseback riding, which was instituted in 1964 and expanded the following year. A recreation pavilion was added to the facilities in 1966 and the kitchen was renovated in 1972. In the fall of 1973 and extending into the spring of 1974, a new winterized water system was installed at the camp. A new pool deck was laid and the pipes around the pool were replaced, lavatory and shower facilities were added to each of the four older cabins. This was done with the hope that the camp could be used more often and longer into the cooler months by groups who wish to enjoy the great out-of-doors. In 1989 the Sonrisa Challenge Course was added to Camp Rancho Framasa, which consists of a 19 station obstacle course. In 1992-93 CYO Camp received two grants from United Way. A $20,000.00 grant to replace roofing and guttering on nine of the camp's buildings and an $8,600.00 grant to clean and upgrade the water treatment facility at camp. United Way also sent 34 volunteers to CYO Camp in September to paint, mend fences, cut wood and landscape for a day as part of the United Way "Day of Caring."

MONSIGNOR ALBERT BUSALD AWARD

This award was instituted in 1970 as a second service award for adult volunteers who are not yet eligible for the St. John Bosco Medal. It was designed to enable the CYO to recognize these fine volunteers and encourage them to continue their service. The award is named to memorialize a great friend of the CYO and young people, Monsignor Albert Busald.

ST. JOHN BOSCO GUILD

Now in its 31st year of operation, the St. John Bosco Guild is a ladies' organization designed to promote interest in the Catholic Youth Organization and its programs, and to sponsor fund-raising programs for the CYO.

Membership is open to all women of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis and membership totals more than 300 for the current year.

Responsibility for the success of the St. John Bosco Guild rests with an Executive Committee led by the President.

Our current President for the Guild is Paula Schaefer of St. Luke Parish. Paula also represents the Guild on the CYO Board of Directors.
