A Message from
CYO Executive Director
EDWARD J. TINDER

Working for the Catholic Youth Organization for the past 19 years, and serving as Executive Director since October, 1984, has been among the most rewarding endeavors of my adult life. This experience not only has given me the opportunity to serve an organization that I admire, respect and fondly love, but it has also provided me with an indescribable personal growth opportunity. My co-workers have been extremely talented and hardworking. Collectively, the volunteers have been the very best in the community. Patrons have been extremely generous. Board and committee members always epitomize the most outstanding leadership in our area and in the Catholic Church. I have a tremendous sense of gratification that comes from being part of a team of people who have made great things happen.

With a lot of hard work, and especially financial support, CYO is discovering new and expanded ways to meet the needs of youth so they may grow to be responsible, caring adults. It is incredible to think about some remarkable statistics which indicate our phenomenal growth. Since 1993, CYO sports and recreation programs have grown by 85%. Summer camp attendance has risen by over 50%. School groups using camp facilities for outdoor education programs is up an unbelievable 250%. We have added several new programs, and upgraded facilities at camp.

Anyway you look at it, CYO has enjoyed big time growth over the past five years. When asked, "Where do we go from here?" my response is that we're just warming up for the new millennium. CYO stands ready to meet the next century with enthusiasm. I say this with confidence because for the past several years CYO has been building a strong people focused foundation. We have a model program of mentoring young people but realize more needs to be done.

The hard work ahead is obvious and rest assured CYO is up to the challenge. I personally wish to thank all of you who have helped make the CYO an on-going reality for thousands of youth in this city. Please know that your continued faith and support are vital to the CYO for the future. With this annual report we confidently celebrate the CYO of today, tomorrow and always.

CYO CAMP RANCHO FRAMASA

TOTAL 1998 CAMP ATTENDANCE - 1,710

CYO Camp Rancho Framasa offered nine weeks of camping for boys and girls ages 7 -17. In addition to the 1,710 campers attending camp during the regular summer season, another 1,300 boys and girls participated in camping programs throughout the school year.

Since 1946 campers have experienced a "world of good" at CYO Camp Rancho Framasa. They have sung songs around campfire, hiked in its woods, learned new skills and felt God's presence in new ways.

CYO Camp Rancho Framasa is devoted to providing young people a positive, supportive community in which each camper is valued and appreciated. Camp is committed to teaching Christian values to each camper and campers are given the opportunity to enrich their faith lives through meaningful and values based programming.
