The President's Report

Jack M. Woodside

CYO Board President

As I write this letter I am truly filled with mixed emotions. My second and final year as president of the CYO Board of Directors has come to an end. And, while I will serve as an ex-officio member of the board next year, my membership on one of the great boards in Central Indiana will soon be over.

On the other hand, I am very excited to have been a member of the CYO Board of Directors for the last six years. It has been a privilege and an honor to serve on this board and follow in the footsteps of many individuals who I have admired during my lifetime of CYO activities.

When I say I have spent my lifetime participating in CYO activities, I mean that literally. Like many of us, I grew up participating in all CYO activities for my school, and parish. Following college I began to coach CYO athletics at St. Luke and I went on to become the school's athletic director. I was also chairman of the committee that built the new gym at St. Luke. I have also participated in CYO athletics as a referee that got me started officiating athletics at the high school level with the IHSAA. I really have been involved with every facet of the CYO at some point in my life.

Which brings me back to my years as a volunteer member of the CYO Board of Directors. In 1999 the Catholic Youth Organization celebrated its 60th anniversary in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. Beginning in 1939 and continuing through today, the CYO board of directors has always been a dedicated and hardworking group, constantly demonstrating a real commitment to young people.

I am proud to report that this board's commitment and dedication to the future continues even more passionately today, especially with CYO Camp Rancho Framasa in Brown County, Indiana. In the past three years the CYO, under the direction of the board has invested over $500,000 in the camp facilities. A new septic system was constructed at camp, new roofs and windows were added to cabins, the camp pool was completely renovated, all camp buildings were given a new matching paint scheme and a new house was constructed on camp property for the CYO camp director and his family. This, by the way, was the first new building constructed at Camp Rancho Framasa in almost 30 years.

Why such a long-term investment in Camp Rancho Framasa? Over the last five years there has been a tremendous growth in the CYO residential camping program. The popularity of CYO Camp Rancho Framasa is at an all time high. The residential camping season is sold out each year with hundreds more young people placed on a waiting list to attend camp. The CYO camping program truly fulfills the mission of CYO to its fullest extent.

We are so proud that the CYO is able to offer quality programs to the young people in our Catholic schools and parishes. Over the last six years we have seen a dramatic increase in the participation numbers for all CYO programs and activities. Youth involvement in CYO is at an all time high. Those of you who are reading this report are the people to be thanked. Through your friendship and support today, tomorrow will be brighter and even more exciting for our youth.

The CYO is truly a great organization. Through the efforts of a hardworking staff, a dedicated board, committed volunteers and generous supporters, the CYO is in very capable hands. I am proud to be a member of the CYO family and pleased to have been able to give something back to this organization which has always been a big part of my life. The CYO truly impacts young lives in a positive way and will continue to do so well into the 21st century.

Since 1946 campers have experienced a "world of good" at CYO Camp Rancho Framasa. They have sung songs around campfire, hiked in its woods, learned new skills and felt God's presence in new ways.

CYO Camp Rancho Framasa is devoted to providing young people a positive, supportive community in which each camper is valued and appreciated. Camp is committed to teaching Christian values to each camper and campers are given the opportunity to enrich their faith lives through meaningful and values based programming.
