The CYO exists to provide opportunities for youth to develop strong moral character, self-worth and a community service orientation through activities of a social, educational and recreational nature, based on Catholic principles that reinforce proper societal value. As a community of faith within the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, the CYO is committed to a ministry of formation that helps bring youth to their full human potential.

THE JOURNEY

A Message From
CYO Executive Director
Edward J. Tinder

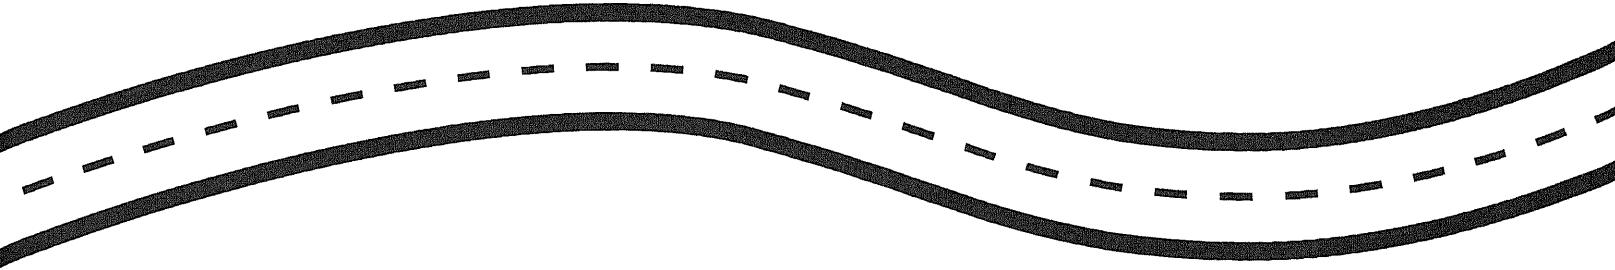

What is the CYO? It may seem like somewhat of a ridiculous question because, on the surface, the answer appears obvious. I have always believed the answer lies deeper than the ball games, camping, trophies, ribbons, gymnasiums, athletic fields, team uniforms, etc. At its core, the CYO is a Journey – a movement of young people from diverse backgrounds through adolescence into adulthood. The CYO is a Journey that inspires and educates youth about the qualities and characteristics that drive them to become self-confident leaders. All who live the CYO Journey benefit from the extraordinary experience.

This annual CYO report celebrates The Journey of all the thousands of participants in 1999-2000. Hopefully, you will be able to call to mind the heart-pounding triumphs, the heart-breaking defeats, the hard work and challenges met and the laughter and tears that together foster these kids to become solid young adults. The CYO is a Journey of champions where the definition of champion takes on new meaning. Participants in CYO leave with messages applicable to any pursuit that requires hard work, dedication and perseverance. Lessons learned from mistakes and losses are just as important as lessons learned through winning. Anyone taking The Journey is a champion.

Perhaps this report should be called The Journey 1999-2000 because it is the story of thousands of children and events in one year of their lives. It also is a story of many wonderful adults whom we call coach, counselor, teacher, moderator, judge, official, umpire, athletic director, gym manager, board member and mom and dad who make up all the volunteers. It is through all these caring adults that we carry out God's blessings. These volunteers think beyond themselves and their own self interests to help kids along the most important Journey of their lives.

Thanks for celebrating with us all the wonderful youth and adults who make up the CYO Family. The numbers in the past tell only a very small part of the real story. The real story is beyond winning and losing. THE REAL STORY IS THE JOURNEY.

God bless you for all that you do to support the CYO. This year past we were abundantly blessed which has allowed us to go beyond the norm in many ways. Thank you for your love for CYO and for the young people we are called to serve.

It is hoped the facility will be completed before the 2001 Summer camping season. This project was made possible through the support of the Indianapolis Archdiocese's Legacy of Hope Campaign, the Indianapolis Foundation and The Lilly Endowment. Additionally, proceeds from the sale of Camp Christina were used to support this project.

CYO and St. Vincent Sports Medicine Form Partnership In 1999-2000

The Catholic Youth Organization and St. Vincent Sports Medicine developed a relationship in December 1999 which named St. Vincent Sports Medicine as the exclusive provider of sports medicine services to the CYO. With the addition of St. Vincent Sports Medicine to the CYO Family, the CYO added a new focus on education and wellness activities that will improve the health benefits for youth and resources for coaches and parents.

St. Vincent Sports Medicine has previously concentrated its efforts on high school interscholastic programs. While this emphasis will continue, the program has strategically moved into activities that will help entire families with fitness, athletic activities, injury prevention and treatment.

The CYO has always been committed to a ministry of information that helps bring youth to their full human potential. While the CYO focus has been to provide opportunities for young people to develop strong moral character, self-esteem and leadership qualities through activities of a social, educational, recreational and athletic nature, the addition of St. Vincent Sports Medicine adds to that focus.

With St. Vincent Sports Medicine, the CYO adds a professional, well-respected health care group to its service package that will elevate its ability to be the premier youth serving agency in the community. In effect this partnership has added seventeen certified athletic trainers and sixteen sports medicine physicians to the staff of the CYO.

St. Vincent Sports Medicine has become an important partner with the CYO. The CYO is proud of its accomplishments since 1946 and is determined to improve on its record into the 21st Century.
