

THE CATHOLIC YOUTH ORGANIZATION
Archdiocese of Indianapolis

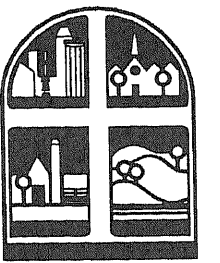

Reflections

2001-2002
Annual Report
Year End Review

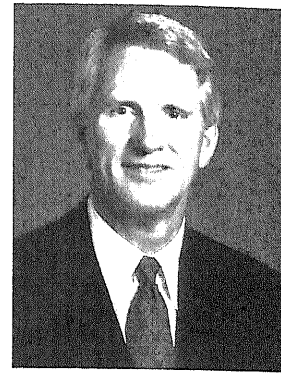

The CYO exists to provide opportunities for youth to develop strong moral character, self-worth and a community service orientation through activities of a social, educational and recreational nature, based on Catholic principles that reinforce proper societal value. As a community of faith within the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, the CYO is committed to a ministry of formation that helps bring youth to their full human potential.

Reflections

from
CYO Executive Director
Edward J. Tinder

After 60 plus years, it is my pleasure to relate that the Catholic Youth Organization of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis continues to be a successful organization and a valuable asset to our Catholic community. The CYO embodies one of the most important aspects of long-time Success - committed volunteers. I hope all of the past board members, coaches, staff, priests and participants take comfort in the fact that CYO has remained true to the purpose and vision of the founders in 1939.

In this time of increased competition from other youth-serving agencies, sports leagues, summer demands on time, and of course, competition for funding, CYO persists as a mission-focused and driven organization that does not compromise the value of our programs. The CYO leadership today has in common with its founders a passion for all children and doing what is right as a ministry of our Catholic church. Today in the CYO, we try to sum up our way of doing things by using the phrase "Honor The Game".

Make no mistake about it, what has made the CYO such a powerful force in the lives of young people has been the volunteer coaches and camp counselors. These modern day disciples live out this personal faith through their service with the CYO. In my 25 years with the CYO, I have come to know some wonderful people who have worked with our youth. As long as there are human beings like these dedicated and compassionate heroes associated with the CYO, there is hope for a bright future.

I believe that the best way to perpetuate healthy future is to never forget to reflect on the past. This most recent annual report that we are proud to give you is but reflection of one year in the life of CYO. This one year is assured of producing more good than any of us can imagine. Thanks for being a part of something so wonderful and know of my gratitude to share in the legacy of the CYO's past and promise of its future.

St. Vincent Sports Medicine continued as CYO's partner in 2001 and acted as the exclusive provider of sports medicine services to the organization.

St. Vincent Sports Medicine staff members presented important information on health, wellness, injury prevention and treatment at all CYO preseason coaches meetings. And, St. Vincent trainers were present at many CYO athletic events to attend to injured players.

The CYO has always been committed to a ministry of information that helps bring youth to their full human potential. While the CYO focus has been to provide opportunities for young people to develop strong moral character, self-esteem and leadership qualities through activities of a social, educational, recreational and athletic nature, the addition of St. Vincent Sports Medicine adds to that focus.

With St. Vincent Sports Medicine, the CYO adds a professional, well-respected health care group to its service package that will elevate its ability to be the premier youth serving agency in the community. In effect this partnership has added seventeen certified athletic trainers and sixteen sports medicine physicians to the staff of the CYO.

St. Vincent Sports Medicine has become an important partner with the CYO. The CYO is proud of its accomplishments since 1946 and is determined to improve on its record into the 21st Century.
