A Message From CYO Executive Director Edward J. Tinder

Dear Friends Of The CYO:

Each year I welcome the opportunity to share a few thoughts with you in this report. I shall use the space provided to thank with profound sincerity the thousands of men, women, families, organizations and parishes that provide the support required to allow the Catholic Youth Organization to carry forth its mission. The vast and passionate demonstration of support that we receive certainly tugs at our heartstrings and is evidence of the warmth in your heart for this remarkable organization.

For 65 years, the CYO has demonstrated an extraordinary ability to deal with tremendous growth, survive and even thrive during difficult economic times and produce outstanding results on a consistent basis. CYO programs create life-long memories for our children and bring families together for many happy and exciting events. Parish grounds and facilities are always alive with the sounds of play and competition. In fact, during the child and adolescent raising years of almost all Catholic families in central Indiana, CYO activities are the heart and soul of parish involvement. It seems we are always at our own parish picking up, dropping off, attending events or doing the same at many other parishes. It is the best of times and the most important of times for our youth.

It is, indeed, a heartfelt experience to realize what all goes in to making CYO possible. The sacrifices on the part of many are huge. I think it had to be the CYO that cornered the concept of stewardship in the Catholic church. The gifts of time, talent and treasure are immeasurable and shared generously because our youth have our hearts. People who make the sacrifices do so because they are convinced that young people will forever be changed in a positive way as a result of their involvement in the CYO. This is true today just as it was true back in 1939.

Your continued commitment to this special organization is critical as we pursue a bright and prosperous future. All of our resources - volunteers, dollars, facilities, leadership and prayer come from you, me and each other. Make no mistake about it, our motivation has to come from deep inside. Yes, it has to come from the heart. And, remember always to follow the things that catch your heart.

Thank you again for joining us as we attempt to accomplish something quite remarkable. May God touch your heart with His love and bless you and your families always.

Each grade has a specific program design in order to offer the highest quality and aid in meeting the state curriculum standards for Indiana which also focuses on character building and spiritual enrichment for the students.
- CYO Camp provides inclusive programming for campers of all abilities and benefits campers with special needs. Over 120 inclusion campers attended camp in 2003 and their support needs included autism, down syndrome, cerebral palsy, attention deficient disorder and physical disabilities. The CYO is committed to constantly modernizing the camping facilities at Camp Rancho Framasa each year to keep the camp new and improved.

St. Vincent Sports Medicine continued as CYO's partner in 2002 and acted as the exclusive provider of sports medicine services to the organization.

St. Vincent Sports Medicine staff members presented important information on health, wellness, injury prevention and treatment at all CYO preseason coaches meetings. And, St. Vincent trainers were present at many CYO athletic events to attend to injured players.

The CYO has always been committed to a ministry of information that helps bring youth to their full human potential. While the CYO focus has been to provide opportunities for young people to develop strong moral character, self-esteem and leadership qualities through activities of a social, educational, recreational and athletic nature, the addition of St. Vincent Sports Medicine adds to that focus.

With St. Vincent Sports Medicine, the CYO adds a professional, well-respected health care group to its service package that will elevate its ability to be the premier youth serving agency in the community. In effect this partnership has added seventeen certified athletic trainers and sixteen sports medicine physicians to the staff of the CYO.

St. Vincent Sports Medicine has become an important partner with the CYO. The CYO is proud of its accomplishments since 1939 and is determined to improve on its record into the 21st Century.
