Thank you, members of the CYO Family, for your remarkable generosity in 2008. The vast number of generous supporters is reflected in the impressive Honor Roll of Donors in this year's annual report. In addition to normal and customary support needed from non-fee based revenue, we asked many of you to participate in our effort to raise $1.5 million to improve the facilities at CYO Camp Rancho Framasa. Because of your love and commitment to CYO, I am pleased to inform you that we exceeded our goal.

Success, though, is also being able to fund our growing endowments to secure the future of this organization. I am very pleased to report that our endowments are approaching $400,000 because of the generosity of individuals and companies in our community. We are fully committed to pushing this total to $1 million before the year 2014. You may ask yourself the significance of that date. The CYO will celebrate its 75th anniversary that year and I can think of no better present from all of us today than to announce a secure future for the CYO through a strong endowment program. Above all, we must continue to build our endowments.

In the past year we have seen some very nice improvements to the CYO website which have allowed for the online registration of participants, better and more consistent communication opportunities with parents and volunteer coaches and improved corporate recognition. The large number of visitors to the CYO website on a regular basis indicates its popularity.

The CYO has also benefited again this year from the willingness of others to donate their time and talents. Coaches, judges, officials, event workers, gym managers, athletic directors, parish athletic committee members and others make up the army of CYO volunteers. Many of these great volunteers have come up through the CYO programs and we are grateful to each and every one of them.

As always, the CYO received invaluable advice and guidance from the members of the CYO board of directors. Every day I see a pursuit of excellence and a focus of the mission of the Catholic church in CYO programs because of the vision that has been established by our board. The CYO way is not just to keep youth busy, but to guide them to responsible Christian behavior.

I firmly believe that the foundation of the CYO resides in the people who have shared their gifts with others. Coaches who share their knowledge and love with our young people, business leaders who share their experience and donors who share their financial resources make the CYO what it is today. Thank you for the personal and financial commitment that makes possible the vision of an even stronger and better CYO and ultimately a better community for the next generation.

MEMORIAL

The Catholic Youth Organization was established in 1939 by Bishop Joseph E. Ritter to assist parents in providing quality educational programs for children as well as to supplement the education provided by the Catholic schools.

The first official activity sponsored by the CYO was a city-wide spring dance in the Cathedral High School gymnasium with about 1,000 youth in attendance, representing every parish in the city. The first athletic leagues organized were baseball and tennis with steps taken in the early days of the CYO to organize other contests and competitions.

Since this humble beginning, the CYO has grown into one of the largest youth serving agencies in Central Indiana serving 20,000 young people each year. In partnership with the Catholic schools, the CYO continues to sponsor programs which serve to provide opportunities for youth to develop strong moral character, self worth and a community service orientation through activities of a social, educational, recreational, and athletic nature.

The CYO is the sole provider of extracurricular activities for the Catholic schools in the Indianapolis metropolitan area. As such, it is the desire of the CYO to allow children the opportunity to experience real life situations that reinforce attitudes and values taught in school. In addition to providing athletic competition in 14 different sports for boys and girls in grades four through 12, the CYO also sponsors a science fair, music contest, honors music recital and a chess league.

In 1947, the CYO opened a summer residential camp in Brown County, Indiana on land given to the CYO by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dingley the previous year.

Over time, Camp Rancho Framasa has grown into a facility offering year-round camping opportunities and an inclusive outdoor education program. The camp has recently undergone an extensive redevelopment plan including the construction of a dining hall/outdoor program center, three new cabins, the remodeling of all existing cabins and the refurbishing of the camp swimming pool. The facility has been improved to meet the needs of campers well into the 21st century.

The Catholic Youth Organization has been evolving for many years to what it is today. The CYO continues to be committed to providing a ministry of information that helps bring youth to their full human potential.

The CYO wishes to thank everyone who has helped to make this bingo event such a big success over the years. With CYO Bingo Night continuing to grow in popularity, we hope to continue this tradition for many years to come.

CYO MIDSUMMER FEST

Every year since 1974 the Catholic Youth Organization has sponsored a special summertime event to benefit the CYO Summer Camping Program at Camp Rancho Framasa. For many years the event was called the Cadillac Raffle because a Cadillac was the grand prize of the popular raffle. The event was then called the Summer Cash Raffle as the grand prize changed to a $10,000 cash prize. Last year the event was called Rancho Round up and celebrated 60 years of Catholic Camping at CYO Camp Rancho Framasa featuring a raffle of two Rolex watches, live entertainment and a live auction with many great items. Rancho Round up raised $42,000 for the CYO.

This past summer the CYO Midsummer Fest was held in July at the Indianapolis Colts Pavilion. The event featured live entertainment, a reverse raffle, silent and live auctions, tip boards, heads and tails chip games and raffle baskets. For the 2nd year in a row our host was Tom Zupancic from the Indianapolis Colts. Tom and auctioneer, Scott Kolb, entertained the guests with a fun and exciting reverse raffle and live auctions.

The evening which was sponsored by the Indianapolis Colts and the Sahm-Kuntz Legacy Fund Partners raised over $52,000 for CYO Camp Rancho Framasa. Thanks to everyone who participated in this great event and please stay tuned for information of the next CYO Summertime event.

CYO GOLF OUTING

This years golf outing featured 120 golfers playing in 30 foursomes. This year for the first time a parish team golf championship was introduced with St. Matthew winning the 1st team trophy.

A hearty thank you goes out to all the golfers as well as companies and individuals who have supported this event over the years. The CYO Golf Outing has been a big success through this great community support.

The Sahn-Kuntz Legacy Fund

The Sahn - Kuntz Legacy Fund was established in 2006 as a way for the CYO to join forces with corporate partners in the community in an attempt to bring people from diverse backgrounds together to inspire and educate young people about the qualities and characteristics that drive them to become self-confident leaders and loving and caring individuals.

CYO Corporate Partners make an annual gift to the Catholic Youth Organization in the amount of $1,500. Half of the gift or $750 is used for yearly operating expenses and the other 50% is placed in an endowment to support the future needs of the organization. A corporate partnership with the CYO clearly supports the youth of today and tomorrow in a meaningful way.

The Catholic Youth Organization was established in 1939 by Bishop Joseph E. Ritter to assist parents in providing quality educational programs for their children as well as to supplement the education provided by the Catholic schools. Today, the number of young people participating in the CYO athletic, cultural and camping programs continues to increase with 20,000 Catholic students participating this year.

A large part of the success of the CYO can be attributed to the hard work and dedication of two very special men - Bill Sahn and Bill Kuntz. Bill Sahn served as the executive director of the CYO from 1954 to 1973. Following his death, Bill Kuntz was appointed CYO executive director, a position he would hold until his death in 1984. During their tenures, these two great men were responsible for the rapid growth in programming for the CYO as well as the tremendous impact the organization had on the lives of countless young people. It is truly fitting that the CYO corporate sponsorship program is named the Sahn - Kuntz Legacy Fund after these two fine gentlemen. The collective impact of their service is deeply felt yesterday, today and tomorrow.

For more information on how you and your company can become a CYO Corporate Partner and join the list of corporate partners listed on the next page through the Sahn-Kuntz Legacy Fund, please contact Edward J. Tinder, CYO Executive Director at (317) 632-9311 or etinder@cyoarahindy.org.

The future Welcome Center

Meeting these needs would alleviate concerns regarding camper safety, inefficient use of resources and negate problems that have surfaced due to the rapid growth of the school year program. Making these improvements will not only allow for a safer environment but will also enable a more effective delivery of programs to serve an increasingly diverse camper population.

CYO Camp Rancho Framasa is truly an essential component in the lives of the youth in our community. Nearly 2,500 children attend summer camp each year and 78 elementary and high schools from throughout the Archdiocese attend outdoor education, leadership and retreat programs throughout the school year.

So, you can see how vitally important CYO Camp Rancho Framasa is to the Archdiocese of Indianapolis in regards to serving the needs of our young people. There is no other resource in the Archdiocese like Camp Rancho Framasa and the CYO is proud and blessed to make the facility available to everyone who wants to experience the beauty of nature and the power of the Holy Spirit.

The development plan was separated into three phases.

Phase I- The research and development, 1991-1996.

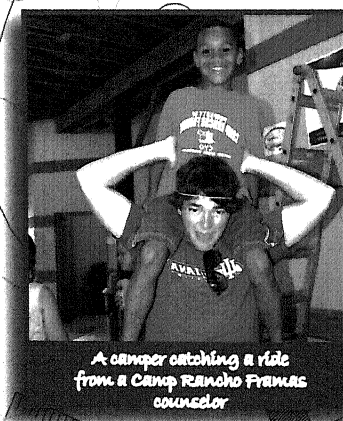

Phase II- Creating a year-round camping program 1997-2005

Phase III- Addressing safety and overcrowding issues began in 2007.

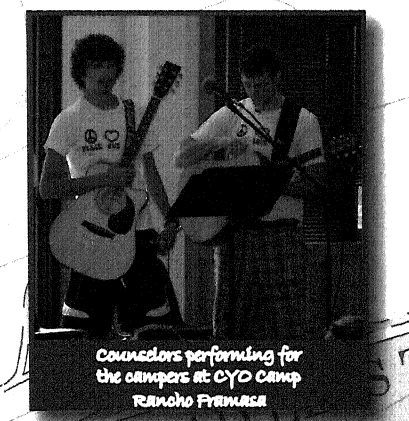

During Phase II a conference center/dining hall and three new cabins were built, the camp pool was reconstructed and the existing cabins and older buildings were renovated at a cost of $2,597,500.

In Phase III, the final phase of the master plan created in 2001, the following projects will be completed at project cost of $1,383,955:

- A. Building a Welcome Center with administrative offices, which will make it possible to restore the current camp office back to its intended purpose of staff housing.
- B. Building a new maintenance facility on a remote area of camp. The current maintenance building is located in the heart of camp property and is close to where campers play.
- C. Expanding the adventure outpost and converting the current maintenance building into an environmental learning lab.
- D. Renovating the campfire circle.

2008 FRIEND OF YOUTH

$100-$249

2008 PATRONS

$25-$99

Since 1939 the CYO has flourished and grown to an organization serving nearly 20,000 children each year. The organization could not meet the needs of the children in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis without the financial support of caring and generous members of the Catholic community.

The CYO extends a very sincere thank you to all members of the CYO family who have supported the organization through their time, talent and treasure.

May God bless your generosity always.
