MISSION STATEMENT

The Catholic Youth Organization exists to provide opportunities for youth to develop strong moral character, self-worth and a community service orientation through activities of a social, educational and recreational nature, based on Catholic principles that reinforce proper social values. As a community of faith within the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, the CYO is committed to a ministry of formation that helps bring youth to their full human potential.

A NOTE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Ed Tinder

Dear CYO Friends:

It is a pleasure for me to write this letter to you at this time when the Catholic Youth Organization is celebrating its 70th Anniversary. What a great achievement and it could not have been accomplished without the assistance of the great volunteers and past staff members who lovingly and unselfishly established and developed the CYO into the success story it is today. I especially want to note the special work of beloved staff members Bill Sahm, Bill Kuntz and Margie Boyle. Margie served as secretary for the CYO for forty years.

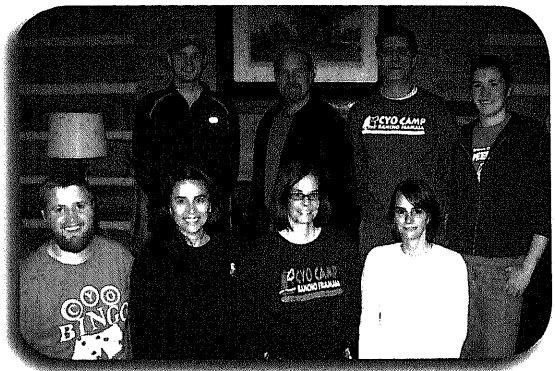

Clearly, though, no group embodies the spirit of the CYO more than the volunteers. While it would be impossible to name all the individuals and groups that have given their time, talent and treasure during these past 70 years, it is safe to say the CYO has been built upon the solid foundation of our volunteers. From the very first meeting in 1939 where a group of volunteers came up with the idea to start an organization devoted to youth, through the celebrations of our 25th, 50th and now our 70th anniversary, the leadership of the CYO volunteers has been unwavering.

Bishop Joseph Ritter officially established the CYO 70 years ago with the specific mission of helping youth develop physically, socially, emotionally and spiritually. Since that time, hundreds of thousands of area youth have participated competitively in a multitude of different sports and cultural activities and attended the gem of the CYO - Camp Rancho Framasa. We have much to be thankful for and sincerely appreciate the effort that each of you put into making CYO a success.

No successful organization can rest on past achievements and expect to get better automatically. I pledge that as we move closer to the next decade of our existence, the CYO will continue all our traditional popular programs. More importantly, though, everything we do will be built upon and abundance of wholesome adult leadership and guidance. We will remain faithful to the mission of the Catholic Youth Organization that was established during that first meeting in 1939 with the blessing of Bishop Ritter.

One thing continues to be very clear to me. The CYO will accomplish very little without the commitment and support of people, including yourself. Your sacrifices of human and financial resources to our efforts will help us grow and prosper. Let us pray for God's continued blessings on the CYO. Thank you and Thank God for the kind and generous support that comes to CYO from so many people in our community.

The History of CYO 1939-2009

The Catholic Youth Organization was established in 1939 by Bishop Joseph E. Ritter to assist parents in providing quality educational programs for children as well as to supplement the education provided by the Catholic schools.

The first official activity sponsored by the CYO was a city-wide spring dance in the Cathedral High School gymnasium with about 1,000 youth in attendance, representing every parish in the city. The first athletic leagues organized were baseball and tennis with steps taken in the early days of the CYO to organize other contests and competitions.

Since this humble beginning, the CYO has grown into one of the largest youth serving agencies in Central Indiana serving 20,000 young people each year. In partnership with the Catholic schools, the CYO continues to sponsor programs which serve to provide opportunities for youth to develop strong moral character, self worth and a community service orientation through activities of a social, educational, recreational, and athletic nature.

The CYO is the sole provider of extracurricular activities for the Catholic schools in the Indianapolis metropolitan area. As such, it is the desire of the CYO to allow children the opportunity to experience real life situations that reinforce attitudes and values taught in school. In addition to providing athletic competition in 14 different sports for boys and girls in grades four through 12, the CYO also sponsors a science fair, music contest, honors music recital and a chess league.

In 1947, the CYO opened a summer residential camp in Brown County, Indiana on land given to the CYO by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dingley the previous year.

Over time, Camp Rancho Framasa has grown into a facility offering year-round camping opportunities and an inclusive outdoor education program. The camp has undergone an extensive redevelopment plan including the construction of a dining hall/outdoor program center, three new cabins, the remodeling of all existing cabins and the refurbishing of the camp swimming pool. Current new construction at Camp Rancho Framasa (detailed on pages 15-16) includes the building of a Welcome Center and a Maintenance Building, expanding the Adventure Outpost and renovating the Campfire. The facility has been improved to meet the needs of campers well into the 21st century.

The Catholic Youth Organization has been evolving for many years to what it is today. The CYO continues to be committed to providing a ministry of information that helps bring youth to their full human potential.

70 Years!

Seven Decades of Youth Development

70 Years of Leadership

Beginning with the appointment of Father Charles Schoettelkotte in 1939 the CYO developed spiritual, social, cultural and athletic activities according to the needs of youth.

Father Maurice Dugan assumed responsibility of directing CYO in 1940. During this year the first CYO Board of Directors was formed along with the first "CYO Bulletin".

Father Richard Langen was appointed CYO Director in September of 1940. He organized a Junior Youth Council to coordinate activities between the different parishes.

Msgr. Richard Kavanaugh was named CYO Director in 1943. He organized CYO on the archdiocesan level. In 1947 CYO Camp Rancho Framasa officially opened.

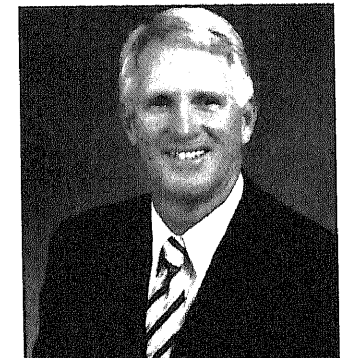

Msgr. John Elford was named Director in 1955. A new CYO office was constructed and the first CYO handbook was published during the Elford years.

William Sahn became Executive Director in 1954. During his time, his boundless energies were devoted to the expansion and modernization of the varied aspects of CYO.

William Kuntz took over as CYO Director in 1973. The CYO Office moved from the 16th Street location to its current location on Stevens Street.

Edward Tinder was appointed Director in 1984. The Sahn-Kuntz Corporate Partnership was established. Major camp facility improvements have been made with many more still in the works.

This summer almost 500 youth and adults participated in this fun annual summer event.

By purchasing tickets through the CYO Office, youth groups and families were able to save over 40% off the regular park admission price.

CYO Kings Island Day is always scheduled for the last Wednesday in July each year.

CYO 70th Anniversary Celebration

The Catholic Youth Organization celebrated seven decades of youth development with a special event on Saturday, August 29, 2009 at the Riviera Club in Indianapolis.

Longtime CYO friends and supporters gathered at the Riviera Club for a fun and festive evening featuring dinner, cocktails, live and silent auctions, tip boards, heads and tails chip game, special raffle items and a reverse raffle.

A special thank you to the emcee for the evening, Jimmy "Mad Dog" Matis who entertained the guests with his humor while directing the reverse raffle.

The evening which was sponsored by the Riviera Club, Sahm-Kuntz Legacy Fund Partners and Beltrame Leffler Advertising raised $40,000 for the CYO.

A big thank you to all who participated in this event. We look forward to seeing everyone at next summer's special event.

CYO Camp Rancho Framasa

For the 2009 CYO Summer Camping Program 2,500 campers participated in the nine week camping sessions.

The Summer Camping season began May 31, 2009 and concluded July 31, 2009.

CYO Camp's inclusion program continues to grow and is considered one of the best in the camping industry. This Summer CYO Camp served 207 campers with special needs. Thirty six of the campers enjoyed one on one support from counselor to camper for an entire week of camp. Additionally, 171 campers received further support from specially trained counselors.

Campers were able to choose from five different camping experiences including traditional camping, adventure camping, traditional camp for teens, sassafras camping and a junior counselor program. Younger campers in grades K-4 could also enjoy our Grasshopper Day Camp at St. Matthew School July 6-10, 2009.

Evening camp fires continue to be one of the most popular activities at camp each Summer. This year campers were able to sing and tell stories around a newly built campfire circle complete with amphitheater seating. The campfire circle project is part of the next phase of the camp development plan which included the addition of a new welcome center and office facility to be built in the Fall of 2009.

Sahm Kuntz Legacy Fund

Corporate Partners

The Sahm - Kuntz Legacy Fund was established in 2006 as a way for the CYO to join forces with corporate partners in the community in an attempt to bring people from diverse backgrounds together to inspire and educate young people about the qualities and characteristics that drive them to become self-confident leaders and loving and caring individuals. CYO Corporate Partners make an annual gift to the Catholic Youth Organization in the amount of $1,500. Half of the gift or $750 is used for yearly operating expenses and the other 50% is placed in an endowment to support the future needs of the organization. A corporate partnership with the CYO clearly supports the youth of today and tomorrow in a meaningful way.

The Catholic Youth Organization was established in 1939 by Bishop Joseph E. Ritter to assist parents in providing quality educational programs for their children as well as to supplement the education provided by the Catholic schools. Today, the number of young people participating in the CYO athletic, cultural and camping programs continues to increase with 20,000 Catholic students participating this year.

A large part of the success of the CYO can be attributed to the hard work and dedication of two very special men - Bill Sahm and Bill Kuntz. Bill Sahm served as the executive director of the CYO from 1954 to 1973. Following his death, Bill Kuntz was appointed CYO executive director, a position he would hold until his death in 1984. During their tenures, these two great men were responsible for the rapid growth in programming for the CYO as well as the tremendous impact the organization had on the lives of countless young people. It is truly fitting that the CYO corporate sponsorship program is named the Sahm - Kuntz Legacy Fund after these two fine gentlemen. The collective impact of their service is deeply felt yesterday, today and tomorrow.

For more information on how you and your company can become a CYO Corporate Partner and join the list of corporate partners listed on this page through the Sahm-Kuntz Legacy Fund, please contact Edward J. Tinder, CYO Executive Director at (317) 632-9311 or etinder@cyoarchindy.org.

New Construction at CYO Camp Rancho Framasa

The Archdiocese and the Board of Directors of the CYO has always recognized the need for a place like Camp Rancho Framasa. Records noting the search for a location for a youth camp go back to the founding of CYO. What began as a summer residential camp has evolved into a year round place for our youth to learn about God through nature, to reaffirm their faith and to help them to reach their full potential.

Post WWII saw an influx of residential camps in the U.S. Established in 1946, CYO Camp was no different. Like many of the camps founded then, funds were scarce for construction and by today's standards, very little strategic planning took place. Camps located their buildings in close proximity to one another to save money. It made sense at the time to have everyone centrally located for administrative, programming and safety purposes. Although CYO Camp is positioned on over 300 acres, the original buildings were all constructed in an area comprised of less than 15 acres. Recognizing the need to formally establish a CYO Camp Development Plan, the Board created a phased plan and it has unfolded in three stages:

Phase I Plan Research and Development

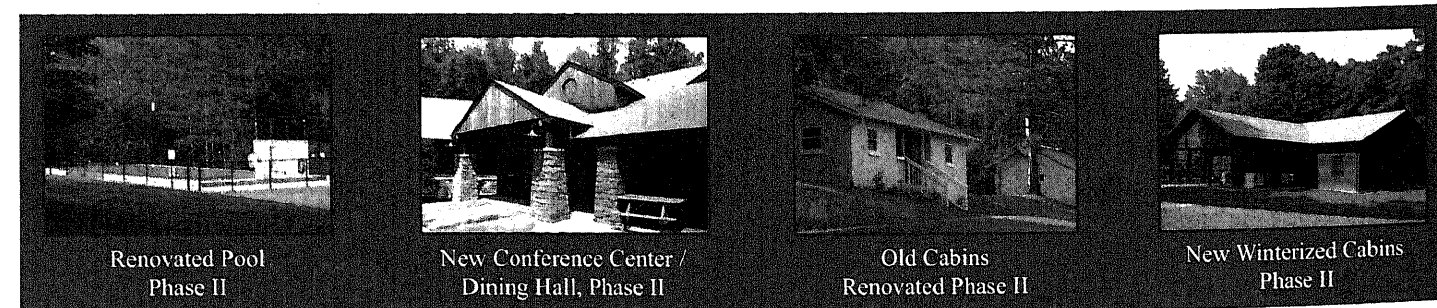

The creation of a phased Development Plan began in 1991 with a Camping Program Study conducted by Gary Robb of Indiana University, and then a follow up study, Capital Needs Assessment by Kaleidoscope, Inc in 1993 further defined our needs. A Facility Assessment & ADA Audit in 1994, prepared by Greiner, set the stage for design and implementation of Phase I of the Development Plan which primarily consisted of foundation repairs and the installation of a new septic system.

Phase II Creating a Year Round Camping Program

In 1999 Heartland Inc., conducted an Organizational Study to determine what changes needed to be made to camp to enable it to become a year round facility. CSO Architects, Brandt Construction and Meyer Najem were engaged to implement Phase II of the plan in 2001 wherein a conference center/dining hall and three winterized cabins were added to the camp grounds. The camp pool was reconstructed and many cabins and older buildings renovated. Year round programming had begun and today nearly 3,200 youth visit the camp for Leadership, Retreat and Environmental Learning Programs.

Phase III Completing the conversion to a Year Round Camp

We are currently involved in Phase III of the Development Plan. The projects in this phase of the Camp Rancho Framasa Development Plan are designed to address safety issues at camp and to complete the work begun many years ago to establish Camp Rancho Framasa as a year round facility. Without hesitation, the CYO Board of Directors has continued to make implementation of the Development Plan a priority for over 20 years. Because of this steadfast commitment to Camp Rancho Framasa, the facility and its programming have changed profoundly during this time.

Details of the New Construction at CYO Camp

Each phase of the Camp Development Plan has been rooted in studies conducted to assess our needs. Phase III is no different as the specific needs expressed in this stage were methodically produced through 16 months of evaluation and compromise between the CYO Board of Directors, staff, architects and contractors. Essentially, we are in the process of building two new buildings, recycling two older buildings, and refurbishing the campfire area. Lamson & Condon and Meyer Najem are the architect and builder of record on these projects.

The current phase of the Camp Development Plan under construction includes:

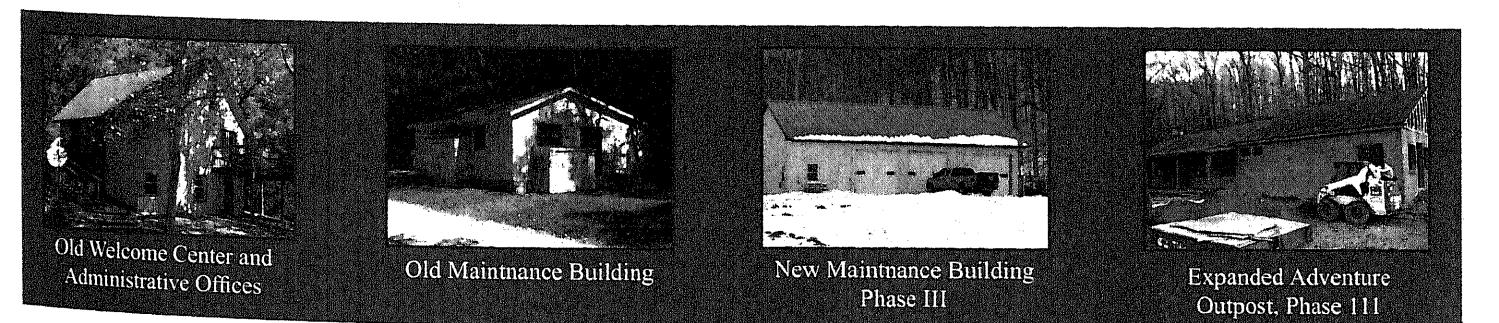

- 1) Building a Welcome Center with administrative offices at camp, allowing us to restore the current office back to its intended purpose, staff housing;
- 2) Building a new Maintenance Building on a remote part of the camp facility;
- 3) Increasing our Leadership and Outdoor Education facilities through expansion of our Adventure Outpost to include restrooms and showers and by converting our current maintenance building into an Interactive Nature Center.
- 4) Renovating our Campfire Circle to accommodate the increased numbers of participants at camp.

Making these adjustments to our facilities will allow us to keep pace with attendees needs and provide for future growth. Serving youth better will allow the camp to refine its current popular programs as well as spend more of the camp's present resources in developing additional programs to serve an even more diverse population of youth.

Incorporating LEED or "Green Building"

We are applying the standards of the U.S. Green Building Council to our new construction. The U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC) is a non-profit organization committed to expanding environmentally friendly building practices. LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) is a voluntary, national rating system for developing high-performance, sustainable buildings and emphasizes state-of-the-art strategies for sustainable site development, water savings, energy efficiency, materials and resources selection, and indoor environmental quality. We are also planning to incorporate "green building" into our Environmental Learning Program curriculum. Students attending camp will have first hand knowledge of and exposure to earth friendly building practices. Our hope is to teach through example one of our core values, which is to be good stewards of the earth.

If you haven't been to camp in awhile, we would strongly encourage you to stop by for a visit as you are always welcome there. CYO Camp Rancho Framasa is a state of the art camp and a jewel of our Archdiocese. We have been blessed with generous contributions from CYO patrons, the Archdioceses of Indianapolis and the Untied Way which has made these improvements possible. We are grateful for their continued support of the youth in our community.

THANK YOU

Since 1939 the CYO has flourished and grown to an organization serving nearly 20,000 children each year. The organization could not meet the needs of the children in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis without the financial support of caring and generous members of the Catholic community.

The CYO extends a very sincere thank you to all members of the CYO family who have supported the organization through their time, talent and treasure.

May God bless your generosity always.
