When we are children, we tend to live our lives minute to minute, day to day and from one year to the next, never really looking too far into the future. We don't realize we are right in the middle of the good old days until we are much older and take an introspective look back on our lives as we were growing up.

So many Catholic adults throughout the Archdiocese of Indianapolis and beyond have played CYO basketball, volleyball, kickball, football, soccer, baseball, softball, wrestling, cross country or track and field. Others concentrated on chess competitions, science fairs, music contests, hobby shows or one act plays. More still have experienced the beauty and tranquility of CYO Camp Rancho Framasa. Since 1939, countless youth and adults have spent their lives Growing Up with CYO. Each generation looks back at their involvement in CYO as the good old days.

CYO programs have always created great memories for our children and have brought families together for many happy and exciting events. During the school year, parish grounds and facilities are alive with the sounds of play and competition. All of those fortunate to Grow Up with CYO know that CYO is a life-long journey. The organization is as impactful to parents as it is to their children. Parents realize that the CYO experience is a journey that inspires and educates their children about the qualities and characteristics that drive them to become self-confident leaders. Participants in CYO come to the understanding that the pursuit of success requires hard work, dedication and perseverance.

If you are receiving this CYO Annual Report, it is likely that you or your children have Grown Up with CYO. Thank you for your participation and for all that you do to support CYO programs and activities.

We pledge to continue the proud heritage of CYO so that your family and all the families to follow will know what it means to Grow Up with CYO. May God touch your heart with His love and bless you and your family always.

Ed & Kathy Tinder Family Campership Endowment Fund

After serving the Catholic Youth Organization of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis for 37 years, our executive director, Ed Tinder, retired in June. During his tenure, the CYO has grown to include the organization of fourteen different sports leagues for 45 Catholic parishes in central Indiana and also sponsors an annual Science Fair, Music Competition and Chess program. Approximately, 16,000 youth participate in CYO sports and enrichment programs on an annual basis.

In addition to these activities, CYO operates one of the most successful Catholic Camps in the nation. Approximately 9,000 youth and young adults participate in numerous programs at CYO Camp Rancho Framasa each year. CYO Camp is located in Brown County, and contains over 300 wooded acres. During Ed's tenure, the CYO has been able to raise over 7 million dollars to completely renovate camp facilities that were constructed, for the most part, in the 1950s. While many Catholic camps throughout the county have closed in recent years, under Ed's guidance, CYO Camp Rancho Framasa flourished. In 1984, when Ed became the executive director of the CYO, Camp Rancho Framasa offered only a summer residential camping program, managed by one full time employee and about 25 summer staffers. Today, CYO Camp is a year-round facility with 8 full time employees, and a seasonal program staff of over 80.

Upon his retirement and in recognition of his steadfast dedication to the youth of this Archdiocese, the Ed & Kathy Tinder Family Campership Endowment Fund was established. Generous contributions from many individuals have brought the principle of the fund to over $60,000.00. Ed often stated that he wished that every child in the Archdiocese could attend CYO Camp Rancho Framasa. Through the dividends received from this endowment, many children will receive the gift of camp each summer and Ed Tinder will continue his impact upon the youth of central Indiana.
