ALL YOUR LIFE

Proudly serving Indianapolis youth of all ages since 1939

CAMP RANCHO

FRAMASA

Catholic Youth Organization

The CYO was established by Bishop Joseph E. Ritter in 1939 to assist parents in providing quality educational programs for children as well as to supplement the education provided by the Catholic schools.

The first official activity of the CYO was a city-wide spring dance in the Cathedral High School gymnasium with about 1,000 youth in attendance, representing every parish in the city. The first athletic leagues organized were baseball and tennis with steps taken in the early days of CYO to organize the drama contest and other activities.

Since this humble beginning, the CYO has grown into one of the largest youth serving agencies in Central Indiana serving 20,000 young people each year. In partnership with the Catholic schools, the CYO continues to sponsor programs which serve to provide opportunities for youth to develop strong moral character, self worth and a community service orientation through activities of social, educational, recreational, and athletic nature.

Catholic Youth Organization activities are spiritual, cultural, social, and educational in nature. The CYO organizes athletic competition in 14 different sports for boys and girls, fourth grade through high school. The CYO also hosts an extensive summer residential camping program and year-round outdoor education and leadership classes at Camp Rancho Framasa in Brown County. A science fair, music contest, honors music recital and chess competition are also on the annual activities calendar.

A letter from our Executive Director

Have you ever heard anyone say that “I am a lifer” about something? It could be that person was a life-long resident of a city, or a life-long member of their parish, or a life-long employee at their place of work. To be associated with any group over a lifetime is worthy of praise and recognition.

So it is with the Catholic Youth Organization. Many individuals and families through the generations have made the CYO part of their life for all of their life. We are proud to have touched so many lives in a positive way since the CYO was established in 1939.

During the course of any given year I have many opportunities to attend a myriad of CYO activities all across central and southern Indiana. At these events I have come into contact with babies as young a few weeks old to grandparents as old as 95. It has made me realize that participation in CYO activities is truly a lifelong endeavor.

At a recent CYO activity I was talking with an older gentleman, obviously the grandfather of one of the participants, and I told him how much I admired him for coming out to watch his grandchild participate in this event. Without hesitation he responded that following his grandchildren to various CYO events has kept he and his wife, both now in their 80’s, active and young at heart. I thanked him for his involvement and I told him that I agreed with him.

In youth we learn and in age we understand. Therefore, as we get older we come to know that lifelong participation in a youth serving organization like the CYO can help us to stay healthy and vibrant.

If you have participated in CYO activities in your youth or you currently have children participating in CYO programs you already know about the CYO experience. Through the years that experience has changed and this organization has evolved into one that serves 20,000 boys and girls each year in our Catholic schools and parishes. However, one aspect of the CYO experience that has not changed is the fact that there is truly something for everyone to enjoy no matter your age.

The CYO athletic program has fourteen different sports from which boys and girls can choose. We have enrichment programs like chess, a science fair and the states largest single day music competition. We have a year round camping facility, CYO Camp Rancho Framasa, that provides outdoor education and retreat programs to students during the school year and residential camping during the summer months. This past year approximately 9,000 boys and girls spent quality time at Catholic Youth Organization Camp Rancho Framasa.

And, for those adults wishing to participate beyond their youth, there are countless opportunities to volunteer at their parishes with various CYO programs. Not to mention, providing leadership on the CYO board of directors and the CYO Camp Rancho Framasa board of directors. We recognize these volunteer efforts by annually presenting the Monsignor Busald Award and the St. John Bosco Medal to the most dedicated and longtime CYO volunteers.

So, as you read through this CYO Annual Report for 2011-2012, keep in mind that CYO is a part of your life for all of your life. You are a CYO lifer. Thank you for your continued support of the Catholic Youth Organization. You are always a member of the CYO Family and you are always in our prayers.

May God bless you and your family for life

Edward J. Tonder

*A Special Thank You to all of our wonderful
Volunteers and Officials*

Volunteers

It is a widely accepted fact that the volunteer is to groups like the Catholic Youth Organization. Without a full compliment of volunteers to assist in the implementation of CYO programs, it would be difficult at best for CYO to offer such a wide range of activities for the young people in our Catholic schools and parishes.

Clearly, no group embodies the spirit of the CYO more than the volunteer. It would be impossible to name all of the individuals and groups that have given their time, talent and treasure to the CYO over the past year. A debt of appreciation and gratitude is owed to a cast of thousands for creating the CYO experience as we know it today. CYO volunteers, whether they be coaches, athletic directors, science fair judges, concession stand volunteers, board members or youth commission members, are truly remarkable individuals. The CYO is proud to offer programs in which over 7,000 volunteers become involved each year.

To each and every CYO volunteer, we say THANK YOU! May God bless your efforts always.

Officials

No athletic contest at any level can be played fairly without qualified and impartial enforcers of the rules of the game. Officials, the men and women in the black and white striped shirts, are expected to exercise good judgement in applying the rules so that games are called fairly for both teams. The basic requirement for all sports officials is having the courage to do the right thing even in the face of adversity and disagreement.

The CYO is fortunate to have some of the finest sports officials in the area involved with our program. At the same time, the organization believes in the positive development of young officials to carry on into the future.

Each year almost 1,500 men and women sign on to officiate CYO athletic contests and we thank them for their great service to youth. They are truly making a difference.

The Catholic Youth Organization publishes this report annually in order to acknowledge and thank the hundreds of donors and supporters in the CYO family. Donors listed in this report gave gifts from January 1, 2012 to December 31, 2012. The included school/parish activities took place during the 2011-2012 school year. If there are errors or omissions, or to request more information, please contact Jennifer Peterson at jpeterson@cyoarchindy.org or 317-632-9311. If you wish to donate to the CYO please visit our website at www.cyoarchindy.org to donate online or call the office at 317-632-9311 for more information. Thank You!

The Sahn-Kuntz Legacy Fund

was established in 2006 as a way for the CYO to join forces with corporate partners in the community in an attempt to bring people from diverse backgrounds together to inspire and educate young people about the qualities and characteristics that drive them to become self-confident leaders and caring individuals. CYO Corporate Partners make an annual gift to the Catholic Youth Organization in the amount of $1,500. Half of the gift is used for yearly operating expenses and the other half is placed in an endowment to support the future needs of the organization. A corporate partnership with the CYO is designed to support the youth of today and tomorrow in a very meaningful way.

William F. Kuntz

A large part of the success of the CYO can be attributed to the hard work and dedication of two very special men, Bill Sahn and Bill Kuntz. Bill Sahn served as the Executive Director of the CYO from 1954 to 1973. Following Mr. Sahn's death, Bill Kuntz was appointed Executive Director, a position he would hold until his death in 1984. During their tenures, these two great men were responsible for the rapid growth in programming for the CYO as well as the tremendous impact the organization has on the lives of countless young people. It is truly fitting that the Corporate Sponsorship program is named the Sahn-Kuntz Legacy Fund after these two fine gentlemen.

For more information please contact Ed Tinder, CYO Executive Director, at 317.632.9311 or at etinder@cyoarchindy.org
