

CATHOLIC YOUTH ORGANIZATION

2012-2013 ANNUAL REPORT

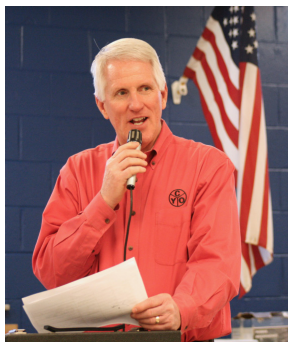

Many things have changed since our first CYO event. No longer are there tennis matches, swim meets, or a talent show, but  doing your personal best and supporting others is still the fundamental philosophy and heart of CYO's mission.

YEARS
STRONG

A LETTER FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Celebrations are a wonderful part of life . . . and we at the CYO have much to celebrate this year. Seventy-five years ago the Archdiocese of Indianapolis founded this organization with the goal of creating an entity that was devoted to serving the youth of our community. Throughout the years, archdiocesan parishes and schools in conjunction with the leadership of the CYO staff and its board of directors have worked to create programs that help youth to develop into the best that they can be. CYO activities challenge young people to seek out their potential and cultivate it in athletics, music, science, chess, and camping. While nurturing their skills in these areas they inherently learn about the intangibles of leadership, the humility found in success as well as defeat and the importance of treating others with kindness and compassion.

We truly have much to celebrate. Our 7,000 volunteer coaches, athletic directors and over 30,000 participants breathe life into this organization. They shape who we were, who we are now and who we will become. Together we have created an entity that truly serves the youth of our community.

Over the next several months we will be sharing some of the history of CYO with you. We realize that nearly everyone that has been involved in any facet of the Catholic Youth Organization has a "CYO Story". Please tell us about your CYO adventure ... be it as simple as sitting through countless football games at Kuntz Stadium, dancing the night away at a CYO Sock Hop, performing in a CYO Talent Show, winning an award in the baking or sewing contests, losing a close tennis match or swim meet, playing in a semi-final or final tournament game or going for your first horseback ride at CYO Camp. Your stories are our stories. Please help us to weave stories of our history together. Send your comments to Jennifer Peterson at jpeterson@cyoarchindy.org and look for us to share them in the coming weeks.

Thank you...all of you, and may God bless you and keep you all the days of your life.

Edward J. Tonder

SUMMER PROGRAM SUMMARY 2013

CYO Camp Staff Mission
The CYO Camp Rancho Framasa will devote itself to developing a strong sense of community while maintaining a Christian approach in the relationships of staff to staff, staff to campers, and campers to campers while promoting self confidence and positive social and moral skills in campers and each other. The CYO Camp Rancho Framasa staff will work to enable campers to experience the goodness in the beauty of nature, in others in the community and in themselves within the unique environment of a Catholic camp. The CYO Camp Rancho Framasa staff will strive to uphold a strong Catholic belief system. Staff members believe that...
