We all know that time waits for no one. It continues to march on relentlessly until one day we come to the realization that our time is beginning to run low, and we begin to wonder if we have made good use of the time God has given us here on earth to make a difference in some small way.

As you consider that thought in your own life as I have in my own, I would suggest that you can't turn back the clock, but you can wind it up again. I firmly believe this holds true for the Catholic Youth Organization.

This year marked the 70th anniversary of CYO Camp Rancho Framas, and in 2019 CYO will celebrate its 80th anniversary. For those who were so instrumental in the founding of CYO Camp (from Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dingley who donated the original 280 acres of land in Brown County and asked that the camp be named in honor of their three daughters Frances, Martha and Samuelle, to J. Earl Owens, the first camp director; to Father John Eford who spent countless hours at camp developing the property while CYO director), I am sure they would be proud to know this beautiful facility has stood the test of time and flourished.

As I look ahead two years to the 80th anniversary of the Catholic Youth Organization, it is safe to say that CYO has been timeless in its service to the youth of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. As I write this letter and prepare for my retirement, I am proud to say that I have been associated with CYO for 41 of these years, serving the last 33 years as executive director. I have been blessed to work with the finest staff and the greatest volunteers this community has to offer. The youth in our Catholic schools and parishes are in excellent hands.

So what lies ahead for this great organization? As I mentioned earlier, you can't turn back the clock, but you can wind it up again. And that is exactly what CYO intends to do.

May God bless you and your family always!

Edward J. Tucker
